Islamic Thought Through Protestant Eyes Mehmet Karabela,2021-03-29 Early modern Protestant scholars closely engaged with Islamic thought in more ways than is usually recognized Among Protestants Lutheran scholars distinguished themselves as the most invested in the study of Islam and Muslim culture Mehmet Karabela brings the neglected voices of post Reformation theologians primarily German Lutherans into focus and reveals their rigorous engagement with Islamic thought Inspired by a global history approach to religious thought Islamic Thought Through Protestant Eyes offers new sources to broaden the conventional interpretation of the Reformation beyond a solely European Christian phenomenon Based on previously unstudied dissertations disputations and academic works written in Latin in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Karabela analyzes three themes Islam as theology and religion Islamic philosophy and liberal arts and Muslim sects Sunni and Shi a This book provides analyses and translations of the Latin texts as well as brief biographies of the authors These texts offer insight into the Protestant perception of Islamic thought for scholars of religious studies and Islamic studies as well as for general readers Examining the influence of Islamic thought on the construction of the Protestant identity after the Reformation helps us to understand the role of Islam in the evolution of Christianity

The Historical Practice of Diversity Dirk Hoerder,Christiane Harzig,Adrian Shubert,2003-09-01 While multicultural composition of nations has become a catchword in public debates few educators not to speak of the general public realize that cultural interaction was the rule throughout history Starting with the Islam Christian Jewish Mediterranean world of the early modern period this volume moves to the empires of the 18th and 19th centuries and the African Diaspora of the Black Atlantic It ends with questioning assumptions about citizenship and underlying homogeneous received cultures through the analysis of the changes in various literatures This volume clearly shows that the life worlds of settled as well as migrant populations in the past were characterized by cultural change and exchange whether conflictual or peaceful Societies reflected on such change in their literatures as well as in their concepts of citizenship Henry VIII's Divorce James Christopher Warner,1998 A close examination of the rivalry between two printing presses at the time of the divorce crisis shows how the new learning could be employed to influence even the king himself During the period of Henry VIII s divorce crisis a political and literary rivalry developed between Thomas Berthelet the king s printer and the Rastell family kinsmen of the Lord Chancellor Sir Thomas More and quasi official printers in their own right This study recounts the text by text progress of the feud It describes how Berthelet represented Henry as a prudent philosopher king taking the advice of scholars and theologians on annulling his marriage and on limiting the Church's power texts include A Glass of the Truth rumoured to be by Henry himself and the works of Sir Thomas Elyot. In response to the king's press campaign the Rastells dialogues and dramas staged the kind of wise counsel that Henry ostensibly welcomed. John Rastell's A New Book of Purgatory Skelton's Magnificence among them observing the rules dictated by the king's public image and urging him towards greater conformity with that image than divorce or declaration of royal supremacy would allow.
