Excerpt from Our Flag Origin and Progress of the Flag of the United States of America With an Introductory Account of the Symbols Standards Banners and Flags of Ancient and Modern Nations This is a maxim which I have received by hereditary tradition not only from my father but also from my grandfather and his ancestors that after what I owe to God nothing should be more dear or sacred than the love and respect I owe to my country DeThou Land of my birth thy glorious stars Float over shore and sea Made sacred by a thousand scars They were not born to flee Oh may that flag forever wave Where dwell the patriot and the brave Till all the earth be free Yet still the shrine be here as now Where freeman pilgrim like shall bow There is the national flag He must be cold indeed who can look upon its folds rippling in the breeze without pride of country If he be in a foreign land the flag is companionship and country itself with all its endearments Who as he sees it can think of a state merely Whose eye once fastened upon its radiant trophies can fail to recognize the image of the whole nation It has been called a floating piece of poetry and yet I know not if it have any intrinsic beauty beyond other ensigns Its highest beauty is in what it symbolizes It is because it represents all that all gaze at it with delight and reverence It is a piece of bunting lifted in the air but it speaks sublimely and every part has a voice Its stripes of alternate red and white proclaim the original union of thirteen states to maintain the declaration of independence Its stars white on a field of blue proclaim that union of states constituting our national constellation which receives a new star with every new state The two together signify union past and present The very colors have a language which was officially recognized by our fathers White is for purity red for valor blue for justice and all together bunting stripes stars and colors blazing in the sky make the flag of our country to be cherished by all our hearts to be upheld by all our hands Charles Sumner About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works We Love Our Flag Dr. Jean Feldman and Dr. Holly Karapetkova, 2013-03-01 Sing along with Dr Jean and Dr Holly to learn about the stars and stripes on our flag Our Flag Henry Preble, 2023-02-07 Reprint of the original Our Flag Polly Hoffman, 2002 Introduces the history of the American flag national anthem and pledge of allegiance as well as flag tying etiquette
