Me First! Me First! Jan Berenstain,2000      Choosing Ourselves Barbara R. Walker,Jim H. Walker,2023-10-24 Barbara Walker s world was turned upside down by her son Jim s birth defect Left to her own devices in the early years Barbara struggles with grief from the loss of the expected normal child and battles self defeating thoughts Demoralizing encounters with medical professionals and insensitive remarks about Jim s face leave mother and child feeling vulnerable They struggle with self blame and fight against dark thoughts Over time they encounter and endure new doctors multiple surgeries with disappointing results and peers who taunt and bully Gradually Jim and Barbara empower themselves in their own ways protest dismissive treatment and become strong advocates for themselves Jim proves to himself he can handle the world on his own after a successful 400 mile solo bike trip As he ages into a young adult Barbara frees herself from her own worries and drawing on her experiences shapes a career as a counseling psychologist so that she can address the needs of parents of children with birth defects and disabilities Jim also develops a successful career a loving partnership and a settled relationship with his cleft palate Then prompted by an invitation from her 45 year old son to share our story mother and son embark on an unflinching account of their personal and shared experiences their often differing memories and how they dealt with and learned from his cleft lip and palate birth defect Entwined with Barbara s narrative of her mothering experience Jim s poems shine a light on a teenager s struggle and both discover that this candid sharing of private challenges has taken them to a deeper parent child relationship For children with birth defects the message of this powerful tender and truthful book is You are not alone hardship is not ruinous a full life is yours even if your hopes are not completely realized

Dismal: the Maria Patterson Memoirs Quincy Poaches,2012-10-29 What if you could see things that no one else could What if you saw things that would terrify the average person on a daily basis Thats what its like during a normal day in the life of Maria Patterson a woman with quite possibly the most unique interpretation of life and death This particular subject matter is taught by many throughout our lives yet it is understood by few Maria however has the unfortunate honor of being given a literal hands on lesson from one of the few who know most about the subject and as her knowledge swells she soon discovers that just like with Pandoras Box there are some things you just dont really want to really know Our parents always told us that we were special but what if you didnt want to be      Social Support in Couples Carolyn E. Cutrona,1996-04-11 Expressions of support between partners may be more commonplace than heroic but their cumulative effects on the growth of trust enduring love and commitment can be considerable even lifesaving in the face of otherwise overwhelming tragedy Skillfully weaving together the latest research with engaging case examples and practical applications author Carolyn E Cutrona offers an in depth analysis of how committed partners can serve as resources for each other in stressful scenarios Beginning with a fresh overview of definitions and concepts Social Support in Couples articulates the vital components of intimate support systems This informative volume explores the phenomenon of marital communication through real life interactions focusing on gender related differences the interplay between supportive and destructive interactions and stress experienced during chronic disabling illness In a concluding chapter a research agenda for future study opens the topic up to additional serious consideration A reader friendly examination of the power of supportive acts Social Support in Couples is recommended for a wide readership including academics practitioners and students in family studies social psychology social work and marriage and family counseling Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction, 2003 College of Industries Catalogue Carnegie Institute of Technology.
