Meaning And Power In A Southeast Asian Realm:

Meaning and Power in a Southeast Asian Realm Shelly Errington,2014-07-14 The ruler in the Indic States of Southeast Asia was seen not as the head of state but as the center or navel of the world Like polities persons and houses were and are viewed as centered spaces locations where spiritual potency can gather Shelly Errington explores the politics of constituting and maintaining such centered socio political spaces in a former Indic State called Luwu which lies in South Sulawesi Celebes Indonesia The meaning of political life and the ways its cultural forms were and are sustained depend on locally construed ideas of power or spiritual potency and the person which the author explores in detail She views the polity neither as a frame in which political actors pursue advantage nor as a structure for extracting wealth but as a hierarchical system of signs ultimately backed by force but force which was not fully centralized and whose import must be understood within ideas about spiritual potency widespread in the region Although focused on Luwu the book's theoretical scope is wide and it ranges comparatively over a broad geographical area making a contribution to ethnographic historical and regional studies as well as to the study of politics in nonsecular societies Part One traces how the person the house and the polity are constituted symbolically in everyday practices as centered spaces Part Two examines how centers can be de centered while Part Three explores the structure that tended to hold centers together in Luwu and other Indic States The introduction and the three conclusions each of the three being broader than the last in comparative scope locate the author's views with respect to other current theoretical approaches to power and culture Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Meaning and Power in a Southeast Asian Realm Shelly Errington, Southeast Asian Perspectives on Power Liana Chua,Joanna Cook,Nicholas Long, Lee Wilson,2012-05-04 Southeast Asia has undergone innumerable far reaching changes and dramatic transformations over the last half century This book explores the concept of power in relation to these transformations and examines its various social cultural religious economic and political forms The book works from the ground up portraying Southeast Asians own perspectives conceptualizations and experiences of power through empirically rich case studies Exploring concepts of power in diverse settings from the stratagems of Indonesian politicians and the aspirations of marginal Lao bureaucrats to mass Prayer Power rallies in the Philippines self cultivation practices of Thai Buddhists and relations with the dead in Singapore the book lays out a new framework for the analysis of power in Southeast Asia in which orientations towards or away from certain models practices and configurations of power take centre stage in analysis In doing so the book demonstrates how power cannot be pinned down to a single definition but is woven into Southeast Asian lives in complex subtle and often surprising ways Integrating theoretical debates with empirical evidence drawn from the contributing authors own research this book is of particular interest to scholars and students of Anthropology and Asian Studies Power and Prowess JH Walker,2020-09-02 A significant reinterpretation of Sarawak history Power and Prowess explores the network of power economic and ritual relationships that developed on the northwest coast of Borneo in the mid nineteenth century from which a coalition led by James Brooke established the state of Sarawak Where many authors placed Brooke in the context of nineteenth century British imperialism this study perceives him in the context of Bornean cultures and political economies Brooke emerges from the historical record as a man of prowess with the author identifying important ritual sources of Brooke s power among Malays Bidayuh and Ibans sources which derived from and expressed indigenous cultural traditions about fertility health and status Drawing on conceptual frameworks from political science as well as recent southeast Asian historiography Power and Prowess offers a detailed political history of the period and new interpretations of Brooke s career This study also retrieves from the historical sources previously concealed narratives which reflect the interests priorities and activities of Sarawak people themselves J H WALKER lectures in political science at the University of New South Wales at the Australian Defence Force Academy Securing a Place Elizabeth Morrell,2018-08-06 This book describes artisans from South Sulawesi Indonesia as they attempt to overcome poverty and communicate ethnic identity through participation in fluctuating silk and tourist souvenir industries Morrell assesses the significance and long term sustainability of their activities The discussion addresses broad questions about economic development as microenterprises such as these are vital sources of non farm incomes in rural areas with high unemployment

1965 Indonesia's New Order government has formulated distinctive policies for cultural development. What effect have these policies had on individual artists and on art forms? This collection of fifteen essays explores the theme in the areas of literature, drama, film, television, painting, contemporary art, architecture, music and language. The essays touch on current debates about the role of the artist in Indonesian society and discuss recent trends in the various genres. The MacArthur Fellows Program John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation, 1993. Other Pasts Barbara Watson Andaya, 2000. The historical study of women and gender in Southeast Asia has received relatively little attention despite the fact that female autonomy is often cited as a distinguishing feature of the region. This pioneering collection brings together a number of international scholars distinguished by their knowledge of relevant primary sources and their willingness to ask new questions and apply new methodologies Often challenging established generalizations the essays highlight the changes and continuities in gender roles Offering both a specialist and comparative perspective the book will appeal to students as well as more senior scholars working on Southeast Asia and will provide a useful supplement for cross cultural courses on women and gender constructions Indonesian Anthropology Jonathan Mark Herzenberg,1992 Oceania Alfred Reginald Radcliffe-Brown,Raymond Firth,Adolphus Peter Elkin,2014
