Meaning Of Persons:

The Meaning of Persons Paul Tournier, 1975 The Meaning of Persons Paul Antoine Tournier, 1970 Persons, Humanity, and the Definition of Death John P. Lizza, 2006 In this riveting and timely work John P Lizza presents the first comprehensive analysis of personhood and humanity in the context of defining death Rejecting the common assumption that human or personal death is simply a biological phenomenon for biologists or physicians to define Lizza argues that the definition of death is also a matter for metaphysical reflection moral choice and cultural acceptance Lizza maintains that defining death remains problematic because basic ontological ethical and cultural issues have never been adequately addressed Advances in life sustaining technology and organ transplantation have led to revision of the legal definition of death It is generally accepted that death occurs when all functions of the brain have ceased However legal and clinical cases involving postmortem pregnancy individuals in permanent vegetative state those with anencephaly and those with severe dementia challenge the neurological criteria Is brain death really death Should the neurological criteria be expanded to include individuals in permanent vegetative state with anencephaly and those with severe dementia What metaphysical ethical and cultural considerations are relevant to answering such questions Although Lizza accepts a pluralistic approach to the legal definition of death he proposes a nonreductive substantive view in which persons are understood as constituted by human organisms This view he argues provides the best account of human nature as biological moral and cultural and supports a consciousness related formulation of death Through an analysis of legal and clinical cases and a discussion of alternative concepts of personhood Lizza casts greater light on the underlying themes of a complex debate The Meaning of Persons. (Second impression.). Paul Tournier, 1962 Rethinking Pain in Person-Centred Health Care Stephen Buetow, 2020-12-30 This book explores how person centred health care could be refined to help persons alleviate pain related distress and construct pain as a potentially positive experience Rethinking Pain in Person Centred Health Care is a fascinating contribution to the multidisciplinary literature on person centred health care pain and ethics Traditionally Western intellectual culture has downplayed the intuitive and emotional promoting instead rational natural scientific perspectives Applied to pain an instrumental approach promotes the immediate and effective relief of pain due to the widespread suffering and expense it can cause However different persons experience pain in different ways and Buetow moves beyond a commitment to eliminate pain to exploring how benefits of pain could include creating and managing meaning from pain Rather than always looking to put pain behind them persons may flourish by moving around pain through pain into pain and above pain Buetow argues that this model depends on adopting a person centred approach to health care focusing less on the condition of pain and more on mobilizing the persons who present with and manage pain This book will be of interest to professionals and academics researchers in the fields of psychology and psychiatry who have a special interest in people with persistent pain conditions It will also be an invaluable resource for physiotherapists chronic pain
