Measurement and Evaluation in Education and Psychology William A. Mehrens, Irvin J. Lehmann, 1984 Measurement and Evaluation in Teaching Norman Edward Gronlund, 1981 Measurement and Assessment in Teaching Robert L. Linn, Norman Edward Gronlund, 2000 For a basic Test and Measurement course The market leader this popular text introduces future teachers to those elements of measurement and assessment essential to good teaching Its straightforward treatment is predicated on the authors belief that evaluation of learning plays a pivotal role in the instructional process and that its effectiveness depends on a teacher s ability to construct and select valid evaluation instruments Written with the introductory student in mind it assumes no prior knowledge of statistics and uses illustrative examples generously to explain and expand upon topics Measurement and Assessment in Education Cecil R. Reynolds, Ronald B. Livingston, Victor L. Willson, 2006 This text employs a somewhat traditional approach to the study of educational tests and measurement so that teachers will understand essential psychometric concepts and be able to apply them in the classroom The principles that guide the development of this text are 1 What essential knowledge and skills do classroom teachers need to conduct student assessments in a professional manner and 2 What does the research on educational assessment tell us This focus has resulted in a uniquely approachable but technically accurate presentation of the material While providing a slightly more technical presentation of the material than more basic texts this text is both approachable and comprehensive The text includes a gentle introduction to the basic mathematics of measurement and expands traditional coverage to include a thorough discussion of performance and portfolio assessments a complete presentation of assessment accommodations for students with disabilities and a practical discussion of professional best practices in educational measurement
