Practical Spiritualities in a Media Age Curtis Coats, Monica M. Emerich, 2015-11-19 We live in a media age where technologies become the sites and sources of our practices and beliefs including those deeper values that guide decisions about how we should live Practical Spiritualities in a Media Age explores how and why media become the site and source of spiritual expressions that address the mundane or everydayness of our lives Including international case studies and essays from leading scholars such as Stewart Hoover and Graham Harvey the book examines the ways and the places in which people have employed media and information technologies to weave spiritual meaning throughout the demands and pastimes of their lives Topics range from food and sex to spiritual tourism In doing so the volume takes up a call from Paul Heelas seminal work Spiritualities of Life to provide more examples more richness and more depth to the variety of spiritual practices that exist in late modernity Providing critical scholarly explorations of the complexities and contradictions of late modern spiritual practices Practical Spiritualities in a Media Age is a must read for anyone working in the intersection of media religion or spirituality and culture

A Concise History of Cornwall Bernard Deacon, 2007 This book traces the creative tensions produced by Cornwall's unique history from an independent British kingdom through a culturally distinct medieval province and a prominent industrial region in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries to its present location as a post industrial paradox nation region and county all wrapped in one

Sport, Representation and Evolving Identities in Europe Philip Dine, Seán Crosson, 2010 Sport annually mobilizes millions of people across Europe as practitioners in a wide variety of competitive educational or recreational contexts and as spectators who are physically present or following events through the mass media This book presents original research into modern sport funded by the Irish Research Council for the Humanities and Social Sciences Its aim is to examine the distinctive contribution made by this complex phenomenon to the construction of European identities Attention is focused on sport's social significance as a set of mass mediated practices and spectacles giving rise to a network of images symbols and discourses The book seeks to explore and ultimately to explain the processes of representation and mediation involved in the sporting construction and subsequent renegotiation of local national and increasingly global identities It offers a survey of key developments in sporting Europe from the mid nineteenth century to the present and from the Atlantic to the Urals presenting findings by acknowledged international experts and emerging scholars at the level of individuals communities regions nation states and Europe as a whole in both its geographical and political incarnations Its focus on representation offers a broadly conceived and consciously inclusive approach to issues of Europeaness in modern and contemporary sport

Mebyon Kernow and Cornish Nationalism Bernard Deacon, Dick Cole (Archaeologist), Garry Tregidga, 2003 Mebyon Kernow the Party for Cornwall has been at the forefront of the campaign for Cornish self government for over 50 years This is the first book to fully address the issues of political nationalism in Cornwall It traces the growth of a Cornish national consciousness throughout the twentieth century the foundation of MK in 1951 and its evolution from a cultural pressure group into a fully fledged political party Based on a range of primary sources and interviews this book investigates Mebyon Kernow's role within the wider Cornish movement which also generated two breakaway political parties a revived medieval institution of self government a range of short lived pressure groups and most recently 50 000 individual declarations calling for a Cornish Assembly BACK COVER Cultural Heritage in Transition Bart Zwegers, 2022-02-26 This book introduces the multilevel perspective to analyze how local national and international actors and institutions in the heritage field interact More specifically a comparative study is made of controversies regarding six UNESCO World Heritage sites in Germany and the United Kingdom The six cases involve traditional monuments the cathedral of Aachen and the castle and cathedral of Durham industrial heritage the Zollverein Coal Mine in Essen and the former tin and copper mines in Cornwall and cities Dresden and Liverpool Studying how long term landscape developments interact with local actors and nationally organized regimes reveals important differences between the decentralized German and the centralized British approach to heritage preservation These differences not only have consequences for the governance of heritage preservation in the two countries but also for their relations with international organizations such as UNESCO The Politics of Cultural Memory Jim Aulich, Lucy Burke, Simon Faulkner, 2020-05-15 This edited collection explores the political dimensions of cultural memory work in its varied forms of representation from public monuments to literary texts Addressing the different ways that cultural texts represent the past in the present the collection demonstrates that cultural memory is something actively made the site of a struggle over meanings that can serve a range of political and cultural purposes The collection offers essays that discuss the politics of cultural memory both in theory and in practice and features work by some of the leading scholars in the field including Susannah Radstone Graham Dawson Felicity Collins and Therese Davis Contributors explore the ways in which memory comes to be articulated through particular cultural practices from film and photography to literature and public monuments all of which have their own codes and conventions modes of address and audiences As such this volume brings together scholars working in a range of disciplines literary studies history art history film studies and in so doing seeks to establish a dialogue between different disciplines and methodologies and to explore cultural memory work in a range of different intellectual fields cultural forms and political and historical contexts for instance the Holocaust Northern Ireland Australia Palestine and the former Soviet Bloc The collection will be of interest to students researchers and scholars working in the area of cultural memory studies for whom it will represent an invaluable collection of current work in the field It will also interest scholars working in the particular areas with which it engages for instance postcolonial studies Holocaust studies Eastern European Studies Irish Studies Art History and English Studies Po stopách keltojazyčných obyvateľ Evropy: Irsko, Skótsko, Wales, Cornwall, ostrov Man a Bretaň Petr Kokaisl, Andrea Štolfová, Pavla Fajfrlíková, Irena Cejpková, Jana Zychová, Julie Benátská, Jana Brejchová, Jan Čimera, Ivan Dillinger, Michal Ekl, Martina Elicarová, Kateřina Hassmanová, Filip Ivanov, Eva Jirešová, Lucie Javůrková, Lucie Kanciánová, Linda Kolářová, Jakub Kratochvíl, Adéla Macalová, Lukáš Rybka, Vojtěch Václavík, Hana Vávrová, Veronika Volfová, 2016-12-19 Hlavní cílem předkládané monografie bylo zmapovat a srovnat aktuální situace keltojazyčných skupin ve Francii Bretaně Velké Británii Cornwallu Walesu Skotsku na ostrově Man a v Irské republice. Mezi hlavní zkoumané prvky patřilo zejména pojetí etnické identity keltojazyčných skupin a porovnání oficiálních údajů např. z sčítání obyvatel s neoficiálními daty např. z odhadů spolků nebo vzdělávacích zařízení. Vzhledem k tomu, že keltské jazyky jako jednoho z důležitých prvků etnické identity lze považovat za dodatečný stykový faktor, podléhající asimilaci, jak specifika si jazyk zachoval, jak mohou být jeho další funkce. Dále bychom se zaměřili na to, jak rovněž fungují rodnostní nebo jazykové spolky a jak je rozvinut kolství v menšinových jazycích. The main goal of this monograph is to map and compare the current status of Celtic language groups in France Brittany Great Britain Cornwall Wales and Scotland the Isle of Man and Ireland. The research identified the numbers of Celtic language speakers and the proportion of the population claiming to be a specific ethnic identity, comparing official data e.g. population census with unofficial data estimates of associations or educational institutions. It also focused on the use of Celtic languages as one of the important elements of ethnic identity. Another point of interest of the research lay in identifying the elements of ethnic identity, how national or linguistic associations operate and how education in the minority language is developed. Employing the results obtained from field research conducted in the years 2009-2016 allows comparison of the status of Celtic speaking populations in Europe over the same period discussed in this publication.
