Medals Of Honor:

The Medal of Honor Dwight S. Mears,2018-08-22 The Medal of Honor may be America's highest military decoration but all Medals of Honor are not created equal. The medal has in fact consisted of several distinct decorations at various times and has involved a number of competing statutes and policies that rewarded different types of heroism. In this book the first comprehensive look at the medal's historical legal and policy underpinnings Dwight S. Mears charts the complex evolution of these developments and differences over time. The Medal of Honor has had different qualification thresholds at different times and indeed three separate versions one for the army and two for the navy existed contemporaneously between World Wars I and II. Mears traces these versions back to the medal's inception during the Civil War and continues through the ongoing wars in Iraq and Afghanistan along the way describing representative medal actions for all major conflicts and services as well as legislative and policy changes contemporary to each period. He gives particular attention to retroactive army awards for the Civil War World War I legislation that modernized and expanded the army's statutory award authorization the navy's grappling with both a combat and noncombat Medal of Honor through much of the twentieth century the Vietnam era act that ended noncombat awards and largely standardized the Medal of Honor among all services and the perceived decline of Medals of Honor awarded in the ongoing Global War on Terror. Mears also explores the tradition of awards via legislative bills of relief extralegislative awards administrative routes to awards through Boards of Correction of Military Records restoration of awards previously revoked by the army in 1917 judicial review of military actions in federal court and legislative actions intended to atone for historical discrimination against ethnic minorities. Unprecedented in scope and depth his work is sure to be the definitive resource on America's highest military honor.

The Making of a Hero Linda Moss Mines,2021-03-16 Being a HERO means overcoming tremendous odds through sacrifice service and holding to important values. In The Making of a Hero Linda Moss Mines introduces children to the important values of patriotism citizenship courage integrity sacrifice and commitment. This book tells the story of six Americans Arthur MacArthur Civil War George Jordan Buffalo Soldier Alvin C York World War I Desmond Doss World War II Ray Duke Korean War and Dr Mary Edwards Walker Civil War who were awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor the highest award given to a member of the armed forces for valor. Each individual showed great courage and bravery in the face of fear some even giving the ultimate sacrifice with their lives. Through these inspiring stories children will learn that they too can model these values in their daily decisions and in the way they serve those around them. They will realize the potential to make a real difference in their community country and world.

Civil War Medal of Honor Recipients Robert P. Broadwater,2024-10-17 In November 1861 Lieutenant Colonel Edward Townsend adjutant general of the Army sought to establish an award to motivate and inspire Northern soldiers in the aftermath of the early morale devastating defeats of the Civil War. The outcome of Townsend's brainstorm was the Medal of Honor. This reference book offers information about all recipients of the Civil War Medal of
