The Palestinian Novel Bashir Abu-Manneh, 2016-04-26 What happens to the Palestinian novel after the national dispossession of the nakba and how do Palestinian novelists respond to this massive crisis This is the first study in English to chart the development of the Palestinian novel in exile and under occupation from 1948 onwards By reading the novel in the context of the ebb and flow of Arab and Palestinian revolution Bashir Abu Manneh defines the links between aesthetics and politics Combining historical analysis with textual readings of key novels by Jabra Kanafani Habiby and Khalifeh the chronicle of the Palestinian novel unfolds as one that articulates humanism self sacrifice as collective redemption mutuality and self realization Political challenge hope and possibility are followed by the decay of collective and individual agency Genet s and Khoury s unrivalled literary homages to Palestinian revolt are also examined By critically engaging with Lukcs Adorno and postcolonial theory questions of struggle and self determination take centre stage

Politics and Palestinian Literature in Exile Joseph Farag, Joseph R. Farag, 2016-11-14 Despite or even because of their tumultuous history Palestinians are renowned for being prolific cultural producers creating many of the Arab world's most iconic works of literature In particular the Palestinian short story stands out for its unique interplay between literary texts and the political and historical contexts from which they emerge Palestinian Literature in Exile is the first English language study to explore this unique genre Joseph Farag employs an interdisciplinary approach to examine the political function of literary texts and the manner in which cultural production responds to crucial moments in Palestinian history Drawing from the works of Samira Azzam Ghassan Kanafani and Ibrahim Nasrallah Farag traces developments in the short story as they relate to the pivotal events of what the Palestinians call the Nakba catastrophe Naksa defeat and First Intifada uprising In analysing several as yet un translated works Farag makes an original contribution to the subject of exilic identity and subjectivity in Palestinian literature This book offers the opportunity to engage with literary works as well to learn from a literary account of history It is a subject of interest for students and scholars of both Arabic literature and Middle East studies
