

The image features two dancers in elaborate green costumes with long, flowing, light-emitting trails. They are captured in dynamic poses against a dark blue background. The dancer on the left is in a graceful, low-to-the-ground pose, while the dancer on the right is in a more powerful, mid-air pose. The light trails create a sense of movement and magic.

The Pan Book of Ballet and Dance Peter Brinson, Clement Crisp, 1981-01-01 Metaphor Translation in Popular Science Sui He, 2024-12-30 This book explores the intersection of metaphor studies and translation studies specifically focusing on popular scientific articles The volume complements existing work on conceptual metaphor theory in translation by aligning it with conceptual blending theory to demonstrate how an integrated approach offers a more expansive understanding of the cognitive and linguistic dimensions of metaphor translation It includes an essential introduction to the key concepts and theories in metaphor studies and metaphor translation research discerning the importance of localising theories from neighbouring disciplines such as metaphor studies for advancing interdisciplinary research in translation studies Sui He applies this approach to popular cosmological discourse analysing examples from articles in Scientific American and their Chinese translations allowing for a nuanced examination of translation strategies adopted by translators at both cognitive and linguistic levels which presents the circulation and transformation of popular cosmological knowledge from English in two Chinese mediated communities This book will be of interest to students and scholars in translation studies metaphor studies and discourse analysis Borodkin's Guide to Motion Picture Music Maurice M. Borodkin, 1927 Hollywood Dance-Ins and the Reproduction of Bodies Anthea Kraut, 2025 Hollywood Dance ins and the Reproduction of Bodies proposes that a figure who barely registers in film studies or dance studies offers valuable insight into ideas about the body and the reproductive labor that gives rise to images of bodies The book is the first scholarly study of the dancer who executes a star's choreography as cameras are being focused and lights are being set While they share similarities with doubles and stand ins dance ins do not replace stars bodies on screen and they often serve multiple unseen roles including as choreographers assistants and stars coaches making them vital to the creation and transmission of choreography Focusing on dance ins in mid twentieth century Hollywood when film musicals and the studio system were at their height author Anthea Kraut exposes the racialized and gendered corporeal ecosystem that operated behind the scenes propping up and concealed behind the seeming self referentiality of white stars filmic dancing bodies A production history informed by feminist materialist approaches to labor and critical race theory Hollywood Dance ins tells the stories of the 1940s white pin up star Betty Grable's dependence on her white dance in Angie Blue the African American jazz dancer Marie Bryant's private coaching of a myriad of stars in the late 1940s and early 1950s Carol Haney and Jeanne Coyne's training of the white ingenue Debbie Reynolds for Singin in the Rain 1952 the Mexican American dancer Alex Romero's close partnership with the white star Gene Kelly and the biracial star Nancy Kwan's on and off screen exchanges with a white production team and Asian American ensemble members in Flower Drum Song 1961 Duo-Art Piano Music Aeolian Company, 1927 Kompozytorzy polscy Fryderyk Chopin Maurycy Moszkowski wykonawcy Ignacy Friedman J zef Hofmann Eustachy Horodyski Wanda Landowska Ignacy J Paderewski Artur Rubinstein Dance and the Arts in Mexico, 1920-1950 Ellie

Guerrero, 2018-07-18 Dance and the Arts in Mexico 1920 1950 tells the story of the arts explosion that launched at the end of the Mexican revolution when composers choreographers and muralists had produced state sponsored works in wide public spaces The book assesses how the cosmic generation in Mexico connected the nation body and the dancer's body in artistic movements between 1920 and 1950 It first discusses the role of dance in particular the convergences of composers and visual artists in dance productions and the allegorical relationship between the dancer's body and the nation body in state sponsored performances The arts were of critical import in times of political and social transition and the dynamic between the dancer's body and the national body shifted as the government stance had also shifted Second this book examines more deeply the involvement of US artists and patrons in this Mexican arts movement during the period Given the power imbalance between north and south these exchanges were vexed Still the results for both parties were invaluable Ultimately this book argues in favor of the benefits that artists on both sides of the border received from these exchanges
