The Parables in the Gospels John Drury, 1985 Example Stories Jeffrey Tucker, 1997-01-01 This study challenges the popular notion that four parables in the Gospel of Luke—the Good Samaritan, the Rich Fool, the Rich Man, and Lazarus and the Pharisee and the Toll Collector—are example stories. A wealth of scholars' views on the example stories are scrutinized with Adolf Jülicher's pivotal definition receiving special attention. The various criteria used to distinguish between parable and example are assessed from both a literary and a rhetorical perspective in order to ascertain what, if any, formal features are peculiar to the example stories. Tucker shows that attempts to differentiate the example stories from other narrative parables attributed to Jesus in the Synoptic Gospels are largely unsuccessful. The result is that these four parables in the Gospel of Luke can be seen for what they really are. The Parables of Jesus Richard Gribble, 1998 Narrative or story preaching has called attention to Jesus' parables since many of those parables are stories. Is there a preacher, especially one who uses the lectionary, who does not preach on a parable from time to time? This book conducts an exegesis of scripture, provides context for each passage suggests contemporary applications with questions that challenge and gives preachers sample openings for the composition of a sermon homily Richard Gribble CSC the author of six books and over 100 articles is an assistant professor of history at Stonehill College in North Easton Massachusetts He has earned degrees from the United States Naval Academy the University of Southern California and the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley In 1995 he earned his Ph D from The Catholic University of America A Roman Catholic priest Gribble served at St John Vianney Parish in Goodyear Arizona from 1988 through 1991

What are They Saying about the Parables? David B. Gowler,2000 A concise but thorough survey of current scholarly thinking on Jesus parables for the ordinary reader The Gospel in Parable John R. Donahue,1988-01-01 Professor Donahue here argues that the parables of Jesus offer a Gospel in miniature while at the same time giving shape direction and meaning to the Gospels in which they appear To study the parables of the Gospels is to study the gospel in parable After surveying recent discussions of parable metaphor and narrative Donahue examines and interprets the parables of Mark Matthew and Luke as texts in the context of the theology of each of these Gospels Finally he outlines what The Gospel in Parable looks like and offers suggestions for the proclamation of parables today

The Challenge of Jesus' Parables Richard N.
