Paradoxical Vision:

The Paradox of Power Pat Williams, 2002-11-18 Seasoned NBA executive Pat Williams ignores conventional management wisdom instead turning to the Scriptures to develop successful leadership principles     The Paradoxical Vision Robert Benne, What are the implications of a person's faith for Christian social ethics Robert Benne elaborates a basic theological ethical framework for engaging the Christian vision with its surrounding public environment political ethical cultural and intellectual He offers practical ways in which religious traditions do in fact engage the public environment     Christian

Realism and Liberation Theology Dennis P. McCann, 2001-08-30 Christian Realism and Liberation Theology provides the best interpretation and critique we have of liberation theology Equally important however is McCann's interpretation of Reinhold Niebuhr For it is McCann's contention that Niebuhr is best appreciated as attempting to provide a form of spirituality sufficient to sustain the frustrations of political struggle By bringing Niebuhr and liberation theology into creative contrast McCann not only illuminates the contributions and shortcomings of each but helps us better understand the issues confronting the development of an adequate Christian social ethic This is a book that has needed writing for some time We are in McCann's debt Stanley Hauerwas Gilbert T Rowe Professor of Theological Ethics Divinity School Duke University

Paradox and Society Louis Schneider, 2023-03-31 The writings of Bernard Mandeville mark an important transition between enlightenment social philosophy and modern science Born in Holland in 1670 and educated as a physician Mandeville spent the greater part of his working life in England where he died in 1733 In some respects Mandeville can be compared to Voltaire Mandeville's junior by twenty four years Mandeville had the knack of making controversies volcanic and of arousing heated debate about any topic on which he chose to comment and he chose to comment on virtually everything He was especially interested in social evolution morality and society prostitution and romantic love crime and its deterrence and in social aspects of religion His views on these and countless other topics cohere in his continual fascination with the consequences of social and economic actions that run counter to anticipations and intentions and in the paradoxical or ironic cast that such outcomes often have In Paradox and Society Louis Schneider is the first to offer a full consideration of Mandeville as a sociologist Schneider offers an intellectual and characterological portrait of Mandeville examining his writings and reactions to him over time Schneider goes on to review Mandeville's theory of human nature and explores his hotly contested notion of the paradox of private vices and public benefits that the arousal of desires is a necessary precondition for the stimulation of social and economic development Social action outside the marketplace and Mandeville's problematic theory of social evolution are next considered The volume ends with an examination of paradox irony and satire in society In this detailed analysis of one of the world's most controversial social critics Schneider shows us that Mandeville offers a vision of human society that is of enduring significance He challenges the reader to consider how that vision might operate in today's world     Two Kingdoms and Two Cities Robert C. Crouse, 2017-07-15 The recent emergence of two kingdoms and two cities approaches to Christian social thinking are shown to have a key and often unacknowledged connection to Luther's reshaping of the Augustinian paradigm. The project works for a better understanding of Luther's own thought to help understand the convergences and divergences of Christian political theology in the twentieth century and today. In particular, Luther's two kingdom thinking issued forth in a strong distinction of law and gospel that was also worked out in twofold pairs of Israel and church general and special revelation creation and redemption and especially the outward and inward life. The work traces this legacy through acceptance and modification by Niebuhr and Bonhoeffer Lutheran and Catholic neoconservatives Reformed two kingdom proponents Augustinian liberals and finally Oliver O'Donovan. The conclusion reflects on both the historical narrative and its connection to an account of modern liberalism as well as a theological reflection on hermeneutical decisions of the twoness of Christian theology. A Report from the Front Lines Michael Shahan, 2009. In tribute to the ongoing influence of Robert Benne, director of the Center for Religion and Society at Roanoke College, fourteen of his friends and colleagues have produced A Report from the Front Lines in which they consider the role of theology in the public arena at this turn of the twenty-first century. They speak powerfully to the cultural paralysis of the Western world where educated leaders claim that morality must not interfere with science or public policy by showing the relevance of orthodox Christianity to humanity's most pressing problems. The constant theme weaving through the volume is Benne's own conviction that Christians can and must engage in the public square with positions forged out of their religious commitments using arguments whose presuppositions allow room for special revelation but whose resultant logic is translated into a shared universal rationality. Book Jacket. American Medicine, 1925. Christian Hope in Context II A. van Egmond, Dirk van Keulen, 2019-12-30. The International Reformed Theological Institute (IRTI) was founded in 1995. Its purpose is to create a platform where Reformed theologians from all over the world can meet, each other, become acquainted with each other's work, discuss theological issues, and stimulate each other in scholarly theological research. The members of IRTI present their work in the series Studies in Reformed Theology. Thus the volumes of this series offer a perspective on the theological insights and spirituality of Reformed theologians all over the world. The fourth and fifth volume of the series Studies in Reformed Theology contain the contributions to the third international conference of the IRTI. Leading theme of the conference was Christian Hope in Context. This fifth volume contains contributions from the different African and Asian perspectives. Other articles reflect the ecological crisis, feminist theology, and Ecumenism. At the end of this volume the devotional contributions to the conference may be found. All articles and contributions in one way or another reflect the context of the author. The Ophthalmoscope, 1909. Ophthalmoscope, 1909. The Ophthalmic Year Book ..., 1927. First Things, 1995. Index Medicus, 1925. Pro Ecclesia, 1995. Jahresbericht Ophthalmologie, 1927. The Journal of Mental Science, 1914. Paradoxical Pain Robert Maxwell Harbin, 1916. Index Medicus. Third Series, 1925. Alexander Pope, the Genius of Sense David B. Morris, 1984. Studie over de Engelse dichter 1688-1744. The
