Compromise Formations Vera J. Camden, 1989 These essays are collected from the Fourth International Conference on Literature and Psychology held at Kent State University 7 9 August 1987 In selecting the essays for this first collection to emerge from the varied conferences now being sponsored by the Kent State University Center for Literature and Psychoanalysis Vera Camden has brought together representative contributions from two major contemporary schools of psychoanalytic criticism object relations and Lacanian theory These essays define the questions which emerge when both schools are brought into the kind of association engendered by this conference offering not so much a resolution to opposing positions as a fuller articulation of the space each occupies and a fluidity of discussion which has characterized psychoanalysis since Freud s earliest discoveries Each contributor is concerned with the place of the unconscious in the determination of the human subject and its representations Whether the approach is primarily clinical or literary each identifies and analyzes the anguish of the incomplete self a self which looks to construct identify regain or even deny meaning A crucial difference emerges among these authors as to how the experience of human alienation and the quest for identify is to be analyzed Some would suggest after Jacques Lacan that the task of analysis is to recognize the illusion of the unitary self and to reconcile the individual to that state Others would contend the task of analysis is to recover by the transference relationship the lost unity missing in childhood and reflect in adult object relations These essays range from clinical perspectives in psychosis and creativity to critical readings of Joyce and Shakespeare to recent applications of brain research to traditional psychoanalytic notions of the human subject The richness and variety in this collection bear witness to the continuing impact of psychoanalysis on literary and cultural studies

Canadian Performance Documents and Debates Anthony J. Vickery, Glen F. Nichols, Allana C. Lindgren, 2022-10-06

Canadian Performance Documents and Debates provides insight into performance activities from the seventeenth century to the early 1970s and probes important yet vexing questions about Canada as a country and a concept. The volume collects playscripts and archival material to explore what these documents tell us about the values, debates and priorities of artists and their audiences from the past 400 years. Analyses throughout rethink the significance of theatre, dance, opera, circus and other performance genres and events. This landmark collection challenges readers to reconsider Canadian theatre and performance history.

Tarzan and the Ant Men
Edgar Rice Burroughs, 1924
No man had ever penetrated the Great Thorn Forest until Tarzan of the Apes crashed his plane behind it on his first solo flight. Within lay a beautiful country. But in it lived the Alali, strange stone age giants whose women regarded all men as less than slaves. And beyond the Alali lay the country of the Ant Men, little people only eighteen inches tall. There in Trohanadalmakus Tarzan was an honored guest until he was captured by the warriors of Veltopismakus in one of the ant men's wars. They had their plans for the ape man. By the advanced science of the little men Tarzan was shrunk to their size and set to work as a quarry slave.
