In this extensive study of two of the most celebrated seventeenth century religious poets Robert Whalen examines the role of sacrament in the formation of early modern religious subjectivity For John Donne and George Herbert sacramental topoi became powerful conceptual tools with which to explore both the intersection of spiritual and material aspects of human experience and their competing claims to Christianity Whalen s argument builds upon his central idea of sacramental Puritanism or the effort to cultivate a Calvinist sense of interiority through a fully ceremonial apparatus and thereby to reconcile the potentially disparate imperatives of sacrament and devotion Unique in its combination of current historiography and informed analysis its attention to the sacramental features of Donne s secular lyrics and its advancement of sacramental thought as an important element of Renaissance English culture The Poetry of Immanence illuminates a crucial dimension of the work of two major Stuart writers In his comprehensive critical readings Whalen offers a substantial contribution to the increasing study of religious themes and devotion in the literature of the early modern period The seraphim, and other poems, 1838 Elizabeth Barrett Browning,1900 The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 7, Part 2 John Donne,2021-01-05
