Spiliopoulou,2008-06-25 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 13th International Conference on Applications of Natural Language to Information Systems NLDB 2008 held in London UK in June 2008 The 31 revised full papers and 14 revised poster papers presented together with 3 invited talks and 4 papers of the NLDB 2008 doctoral symposium were carefully reviewed and selected from 82 submissions The papers are organized in topical sections on natural language processing and understanding conceptual modelling and ontologies information retrieval querying and question answering document processing and text mining software requirements engineering and specification Monumentalising Life in the Neolithic Anne Birgitte Gebaer,Lasse Sørensen,Anne Teather,António Carlos Valera,2020-09-30 One of the principal characteristics of the European Neolithic is the development of monumentality in association with innovations in material culture and changes in subsistence from hunting and gathering to farming and pastoralism The papers in this volume discuss the latest insights into why monumental architecture became an integral part of early farming societies in Europe and beyond One of the topics is how we define monuments and how our arguments and recent research on temporality impacts on our interpretation of the Neolithic period Different interpretations of G bekli Tepe are examples of this discussion as well as our understanding of special landmarks such as flint mines The latest evidence on the economic and paleoenvironmental context carbon 14 dates as well as analytical methods are employed in illuminating the emergence of monumentalism in Neolithic Europe Studies are taking place on a macro and micro scale in areas as diverse as Great Britain Denmark Sweden Poland Germany the Dutch wetlands Portugal and Malta involving a range of monuments from long barrows and megalithic tombs to roundels and enclosures Transformation from a natural to a built environment by monumentalizing part of the landscape is discussed as well as changes in megalithic architecture in relation to shifts in the social structure An ethnographic study of megaliths in Nagaland discuss monument building as an act of social construction Other studies look into the role of monuments as expressions of cosmology and active loci of ceremonial performances Also a couple of papers analyse the social processes in the transformation of society in the aftermath of the initial boom in monument construction and the related changes in subsistence and social structure in northern Europe The aim of the publication is to explore different theories about the relationship between monumentality and the Neolithic way of life through these studies encompassing a wide range of types of monuments over vast areas of Europe and beyond Mecklenburg - Vorpommern Mecklenburg-Vorpommern (Germany). State Chancellery,19?? Mecklenburg-Vorpommern ,1995 Experiencing the Frontier and the Frontier of Experience: Barbarian perspectives and Roman strategies to deal with new threats Alexander Rubel,Hans-Ulrich Voß,2020-12-17 This book considers the Roman Empire s responses to the threats which were caused by the new geostrategic situation brought on by the crisis of the 3rd century AD induced by the barbarians who often already part of Roman military structures as mercenaries and auxiliaries became a veritable menace for the Empire Urban Elite Culture Luisa Radohs,2023-10-09 Medieval towns were vibrant and complex social environments where diverse groups and lifestyles encountered and influenced each other Surprisingly in the study of urban archaeology the aristocracy one of the leading and most influential groups in medieval society has so far been neglected This book puts aristocracy in towns on the archaeological research agenda The interdisciplinary and comparative study explores the significance and representation of aristocrats and their interaction with civic elites in sea trading towns of the southwestern Baltic from the 12th to the 14th centuries Essentially however the analysis of urban elite culture leads to discussion of a much more fundamental issue the informative value of material culture for the investigation of social conditions The book provides new archaeological approaches to the study of social differentiation in towns and contributes to a deeper understanding of the complexity of urban social structures

The Archaeology of Slavery in Early Medieval Northern Europe Felix Biermann, Marek Jankowiak, 2021-11-18 This volume is the first comprehensive study of the material imprint of slavery in early medieval Europe While written sources attest to the ubiquity of slavery and slave trade in early medieval British Isles Scandinavia and Slavic lands it is still difficult to find material traces of this reality other than the hundreds of thousands of Islamic coins paid in exchange for the northern European slaves This volume offers the first structured reflection on how to bridge this gap It reviews the types of material evidence that can be associated with the institution of slavery and the slave trade in early medieval northern Europe from individual objects such as e g shackles to more comprehensive landscape approaches The book is divided into four sections The first presents the analytical tools developed in Africa and prehistoric Europe to identify and describe social phenomena associated with slavery and the slave trade The following three sections review the three main cultural zones of early medieval northern Europe the British Isles Scandinavia and Slavic central Europe The contributions offer methodological reflections on the concept of the archaeology of slavery They emphasize that the material record by its nature admits multiple interpretations More broadly this book comes at a time when the history of slavery is being integrated into academic syllabi in most western countries The collection of studies contributes to a more nuanced perspective on this important and controversial topic This volume appeals to multiple audiences interested in comparative and global studies of slavery and will constitute the point of reference for future debates Best of Northern Germany ,2017 Journey Through Mecklenburg Western Pomerania ,2005
