Natural Relations:

Political Theory and the Animal/Human Relationship Judith Grant, Vincent G. Jungkunz, 2016-03-31 Examines how the animal human divide has influenced power dynamics The division of life into animal and human is one of the fundamental schisms found within political societies Ironically given the immense influence of the animal human divide especially upon power dynamics the discipline in charge of theorizing and studying power political science and theory has had little to say about the animal human This book seeks to amend this vast oversight Acknowledging the complexity of the changing differences between animals and humans the contributors explore such topics as Marx Freud the animal and civilization dog breeding racism and democracy the meaningful silences of animals how sovereignty reconfigures the animal human and the paradoxical struggles against being dehumanized among immigrant workers in a slaughterhouse Political Theory and the Animal Human Relationship is necessary reading for anyone who wants to understand how power has been influenced by the animal human divide and what we can do about it

The Romance of Innocent Sexuality Geoffrey Rees, 2011-01-01 From the polling place to the pulpit The Romance of Innocent Sexuality investigates the passions that are enacted in debates about same sex marriage In a critique that is at once humorous and unrelenting Geoffrey Rees argues that sexual desire is fundamentally a desire to make sense of oneself as a whole person Through a constructive engagement with the writings of Saint Augustine on original sin Rees turns on its head the conventional wisdom regarding the goodness of sexual relationship arguing that sin not innocence is the starting point in pursuing justice in sexual ethics To that end Rees boldly reclaims the wisdom of the most disreputable teachings of the Augustinian tradition that original sin is a literal inheritance of all humanity of the singular disobedience of Adam and Eve in Eden and the inherent sinfulness of all human sexuality This work also engages theological readings of nineteenth century fiction and literary readings of contemporary theological writings In so doing Rees shows that debates about same sex marriage are so compelling because the participants are all telling a common story in which they seek to establish the innocence of their own preferred forms of self understanding as defined against some other persons sinful selves In contrast to this Rees argues for the acceptance of responsibility for the sinful exclusions that make possible finding the meaning of embodied personal
