Nature Culture:

Environmental Archaeology: Meaning and Purpose Umberto Albarella, 2001-01-31 Despite the fact that the human life of the past cannot be understood without taking into account its ecological relationships environmental studies are often marginalized in archaeology This is the first book that by discussing the meaning and purpose we give to the expression environmental archaeology investigates the reasons for such a problem The book is written in an accessible manner and is of interest to all students who want to understand the essence of archaeology beyond the boundary of the individual subdisciplines

Genetic Nature/Culture Prof. Alan H. Goodman, Prof. Deborah Heath, M. Susan Lindee, 2003-11-06 The so called science wars pit science against culture and nowhere is the struggle more contentious or more fraught with paradox than in the burgeoning realm of genetics A constructive response and a welcome intervention this volume brings together biological and cultural anthropologists to conduct an interdisciplinary dialogue that provokes and instructs even as it bridges the science culture divide Individual essays address issues raised by the science politics and history of race evolution and identity genetically modified organisms and genetic diseases gene work and ethics and the boundary between humans and animals The result is an entree to the complicated nexus of questions prompted by the power and importance of genetics and genetic thinking and the dynamic connections linking culture biology nature and technoscience The volume offers critical perspectives on science and culture with contributions that span disciplinary divisions and arguments grounded in both biological perspectives and cultural analysis An invaluable resource and a provocative introduction to new research and thinking on the uses and study of genetics Genetic Nature Culture is a model of fruitful dialogue presenting the quandaries faced by scholars on both sides of the two cultures debate

Cultures of Habitat Gary Paul Nabhan, 1997 Twenty four essays explore the deep and complex connections between nature and people Concentrating on cultures of habitat human communities with long histories of interacting with one particular kind of terrain and its wildlife the author considers such topics as the correlation between upheavals in human communities and the incidence of endangered species the perils of monoculture in the Tequila fields of Mexico and the nature of aggression and the struggle for limited resources Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Colors of Nature Alison H. Deming, Lauret E. Savoy, 2011-02-01 An anthology of nature writing by people of color providing deeply personal connections to or disconnects from nature NPR From African American to Asian American indigenous to immigrant multiracial to mixed blood the diversity of cultures in this world is matched only by the diversity of stories explaining our cultural origins stories of creation and destruction displacement and heartbreak hope and mystery With writing from Jamaica Kincaid on the fallacies of national myths Yusef Komunyakaa connecting the toxic legacy of his hometown Bogalusa LA to a blind faith in capitalism and bell hooks relating the quashing of multiculturalism to the destruction of nature that is considered unpredictable among more than thirty five other examinations of the relationship between culture and nature this collection points toward the trouble of ignoring our cultural heritage but also reveals how opening our eyes and our minds might provide a more livable future Contributors Elmaz Abinader Faith Adiele Francisco X Alarcón Fred Arroyo Kimberly Blaeser Joseph Bruchac Robert D Bullard Debra Kang Dean Camille Dungy Nikky Finney Ray Gonzalez Kimiko Hahn bell hooks Jeanne Wakatsuki Houston Pualani Kanaka ʻōle Kanahēle Robin Wall Kimmerer Jamaica Kincaid Yusef Komunyakaa J Drew Lanham David Mas Masumoto Maria Melendez Thyllias Moss Gary Paul Nabhan Nalini Nadkarni Melissa Nelson Jennifer Oladipo Louis Owens Enrique Salmon Aileen Suzara A J Verdelle Gerald Vizenor Patricia Jabbeh Wesley Al Young Ofelia Zepeda This notable anthology assembles thinkers and writers with firsthand experience or insight on how economic and racial inequalities affect a person's understanding of nature an illuminating read Bloomsbury Review An unprecedented and invaluable collection Booklist Understanding Cultural Traits Fabrizio Panebianco, Emanuele Serrelli, 2016-02-26 This volume constitutes a first step towards an ever deferred interdisciplinary dialogue on cultural traits It offers a way to enter a representative sample of the intellectual diversity that surrounds this topic and a means to stimulate innovative avenues of research It stimulates critical thinking and awareness in the disciplines that need to conceptualize and study culture cultural traits and cultural diversity Culture is often defined and studied with an emphasis on cultural features For UNESCO culture should be regarded as the set of distinctive spiritual material intellectual and emotional features of society or a social group But the very possibility of assuming the existence of cultural traits is not granted and any serious evaluation of the notion of cultural trait requires the interrogation of several disciplines from cultural anthropology to linguistics from psychology to sociology to musicology and all areas of knowledge on culture This book presents a strong multidisciplinary perspective that can help clarify the problems about cultural traits What is Nature? Kate Soper, 1995 This is an excellent book It addresses what in both conceptual and political terms is arguably the most important source of tension and confusion in current arguments about the environment namely the concept of nature and it does so in a way that is both sensitive to and critical of the two antithetical ways of understanding this that dominate existing discussions Russell Keat University of Edinburgh Tourism and Indigeneity in the Arctic Arvid Viken, Dieter K. Müller, 2017-05-03 This is the first book to exclusively address tourism and indigenous peoples in the circumpolar North It examines how tourism in indigenous communities is influenced by academic and political discourses and how these communities are influenced by tourism The volume focuses on the ambivalence relating to tourism as a modern force within ethnic groups who are concerned with maintaining indigenous roots and traditional practices It seeks to challenge stereotypical understandings of indigenesness and indigeneity and considers conflicting imaginaries of the Arctic and Arctic indigenous tourism The book contains case studies from Canada Greenland Norway Sweden Finland and Russia and will be of interest to postgraduate students and researchers of tourism geography sociology cultural studies and anthropology The SAGE Handbook of Feminist Theory Mary Evans, Clare Hemmings, Marsha Henry, Hazel Johnstone, Sumi Madhok, Ania Plomien, Sadie Wearing, 2014-08-12 At no point in recorded history has there been an absence of intense and heated discussion about the subject of how to conduct relations between women and men This Handbook provides a comprehensive guide to these omnipresent issues and debates mapping the present and future of thinking about feminist theory The chapters gathered here present the state of the art in scholarship in the field covering Epistemology and marginality Literary visual and cultural representations Sexuality Macro and microeconomics of gender Conflict and peace The most important consensus in this volume is that a central organizing tenet of feminism is its willingness to examine the ways in which gender and relations between women and men have been and are organized The authors bring a shared commitment to the critical appraisal of gender relations as well as a recognition that to think theoretically is not to detach concerns from lived experience but to extend the possibilities of understanding With this focus on theory and theorizing about the world in which we live this Handbook asks us across all disciplines and situations to abandon our taken for granted assumptions about the world and interrogate both the origin and the implications of our ideas about gender relations and feminism It is an essential reference work for advanced students and academics not only of feminist theory but of gender and sexuality across the humanities and social sciences

Food, Farms, and Solidarity Chaia Heller, 2013-01-28 Chaia Heller follows one of France's largest farmers unions as it joins with peasants internationally to contest the hegemony of genetically modified foods free trade and industrial agriculture

Fact and Fiction Albrecht Koschorke, 2018-04-23 How can we develop a cultural theory starting with the basic insight that human beings are storytelling animals Within literary studies narratology is a highly developed field However literary historians have not paid much attention to the large and small stories abounding in everyday discourse guiding all kinds of social activity and providing common ground for whole societies but also fueling controversies and hostilities Moreover narrative is not only a scholarly category but has come into use in many fields of social activity as a tool for cultural self fashioning This book is based on the assumption that to a large extent social dynamics is modeled in an aesthetic manner via narratives It explores the narrative organization of cultural spaces and time frames the mythological shaping of communities and adversaries and the co production of narratives and institutions aimed at stabilizing social life In this framework the epistemological problem looms large of how an instrument as unreliable as narrative can participate in the creation of a social consensus regarding truth This problem endows the general topics explored in this book with a particularly contemporary dimension Nature, Culture, and Two Friends Talking Kim Alan Chapman, James W. Armstrong, 2015-05-15 This book is in part the story of a friendship over thirty years centering on love of nature and two men s quests to understand how to save what they love At turns literary and scholarly these essays poems and public presentations also document not only the evolution of their ideas and expressions of this love but reflect American culture s own dialogue about nature and conservation In heartfelt prose and vivid language these two friends give back to us some thirty years of the environmental conservation in America Annual Report Georgia. Department of Education, 1916

Water Veronica Strang, 2015-07-15 Veronica Strang s Water digs into the rich history of human interaction with water and is the first of its kind to give a comprehensive cultural view of water and history as well as taking in social and ecological issues It will appeal to all of those interested in the environment and the state of the world today Nature Across Cultures Helaine Selin, 2013-04-17 Nature Across Cultures Views of Nature and the Environment in Non Western Cultures consists of about 25 essays dealing with the environmental knowledge and beliefs of cultures outside of the United States and Europe In addition to articles surveying Islamic Chinese Native American Aboriginal Australian Indian Thai and Andean views of nature and the environment among others the book includes essays on Environmentalism and Images of the Other Traditional Ecological Knowledge Worldviews and Ecology Rethinking the Western non Western Divide and Landscape Nature and Culture The essays address the connections between nature and culture and relate the environmental practices to the cultures which produced them Each essay contains an extensive bibliography Because the geographic range is global the book fills a gap in both environmental history and in cultural studies It should find a place on the bookshelves of advanced undergraduate students graduate students and scholars as well as in libraries serving those groups Listening to the Land Derrick Jensen, 2004-03-01 In this far ranging and heartening collection Derrick Jensen gathers conversations with environmentalists theologians Native Americans psychologists and feminists engaging some of our best minds in an exploration of more peaceful ways to live on Earth Included here is Dave Foreman on biodiversity Matthew Fox on Christianity and nature Jerry Mander on technology and Terry Tempest Williams on an erotic connection to the land With intelligence and compassion Listening to the Land moves from a look at the condition of the environment and the health of our spirit to a beautiful evocation of eros and a life based on love Transactions Iowa State Horticultural Society, 1914

Patterned Ground Stephan Harrison, Steve Pile, N. J. Thrift, 2004 Patterned Ground unravels the entangled relationships between nature and culture Around 100 entries by leading names in new geography and related disciplines focus on various objects in the landscape from beaches to battlefields bees to horses police stations to post offices trees to tractors Each entry written by an expert in the field explores the way in which we understand that object and its relationship to the world around it This book is neither encyclopaedia nor dictionary but a knowledgeable and impassioned engagement with the world In this sense it chimes with earlier experiments in understanding the earth and its landscapes whether these endeavours have been conducted within the sciences the social sciences or the arts Patterned Ground backtracks from familiar and obvious ways of seeing patterns in the world in order to discover the world anew It opens up new possibilities for thinking about the relationships between ourselves objects and the ground on which we walk BOOK JACKET Studies in the Psychology of Woman Laura Mohr Hansson,Laura Marholm,1899 The American Journal of Religious Psychology and Education,1907
