Greener Marketing Martin Charter, Michael Jay Polonsky, 2017-09-29 Building on the strengths of the material published in the hugely successful first edition of Greener Marketing this important new title examines on a global scale the progress of environmental marketing in the 1990s and considers how social issues are increasingly becoming critical factors in how corporations meet the ever growing demands and expectations of customers Despite the fact that such issues are increasingly important in marketing activities around the world it is difficult for practitioners to keep up to date with complex and rapidly changing information and ideas The purpose of this book is to provide practitioners and academics with best practice examples and actionable recommendations on how to implement and appraise green marketing activities It will provide information and ideas for those involved in marketing on how to incorporate environmental and social considerations as well as providing new perspectives on marketing for environmental managers To achieve a comprehensive viewpoint the book is split into three sections The first sets out the strategic issues and rationale for green marketing the second addresses tactical issues in more detail and the third provides detailed international case studies Topics addressed by the global set of contributors include the growing area of products versus services environmental product development green marketing alliances environmental communications green consumers eco tourism and environmental marketing in developing countries reener Marketing is not only a sequel to the successful first volume but redefines global progress towards the successful marketing of greener products and services

Coram Deo Caryn D. Riswold, 2006-07-01 In order to adequately address the issues of atonement and christology we must understand how it is that we think about the relationship between God and the human being The way in which we understand and interpret the life and death of Jesus and his role within that relationship then impacts our theology of the sacraments particularly the eucharist Further the questions continue to confront and be confronted by my inescapable identity as a Lutheran Christian I use the term inescapable because I find myself working from and with theologies and theologians that are unabashedly critical of patriarchal religious doctrine and paternal theological construction yet I cannot be convinced that the tradition which formed me is irretrievable or irrelevant I am seeking to use Luther as one of my sources but I am working to reinterpret him and offer a more adequate constructive alternative that embodies what is useable in his tradition I find the potential for a liberating message within Christian theology and I find a critical theological resource in Luther from the Introduction

Drugs Looking for Diseases R. Vos, 2012-12-06 We all know how much time effort and money it takes to develop a new drug Hundreds of chemical compounds have to be synthesized and thousands of different activities in biology physiology pharmacology clinical investigation management and marketing have to be initiated and coordinated Each new drug starts a voyage of discovery through an unmapped terrain which is shrouded in mist and beset by pitfalls as Dr Rein Vos puts it in his absorbing inside story of the development of the beta adrenoceptor blocking agents and the calcium antagonists Indeed we know for example how long it took before the theory of Ahlquist of the alpha and beta adrenergic receptors was widely accepted Similarly it suffices to memorize shortly the difficulty of expanding the new concept of calcium antagonism through the national German boundaries into the world This shows how laborious and complex pharmaceutical progress is and we all will benefit from a deeper understanding of the process of innovative drug research Sound, Sign, and Meaning Ladislav Matejka,1976 The American History and Encyclopedia of Music ...
