Navaho Trading Days:

Navaho Trading Days Elizabeth Compton Hegemann,1963      Navaho Trading Days ... With Photographs by the Author Elizabeth Compton HEGEMANN,1963      Navajo Land, Navajo Culture Robert S. McPherson,2003-01-01 In Navajo Land Navajo Culture Robert S McPherson presents an intimate history of the Din or Navajo people of southeastern Utah Moving beyond standard history by incorporating Native voices the author shows how the Dine s culture and economy have both persisted and changed during the twentieth century As the dominant white culture increasingly affected their worldview these Navajos adjusted to change took what they perceived as beneficial and shaped or filtered outside influences to preserve traditional values With guidance from Navajo elders McPherson describes varied experiences ranging from traditional deer hunting to livestock reduction from bartering at a trading post to acting in John Ford movies and from the coming of the automobile to the burgeoning of the tourist industry Clearly written and richly detailed this book offers new perspectives on a people who have adapted to new conditions while shaping their own destiny      American Nations Frederick Hoxie,Peter Mancall,James Merrell,2020-11-25 This volume brings together an impressive collection of important works covering nearly every aspect of early Native American history from contact and exchange to diplomacy religion warfare and disease

Devil's Bargains Hal Rothman,1998 The West is popularly perceived as America s last outpost of unfettered opportunity but twentieth century corporate tourism has transformed it into America s land of opportunism From Sun Valley to Santa Fe towns throughout the West have been turned over to outsiders and not just to those who visit and move on but to those who stay and control Although tourism has been a blessing for many bringing economic and cultural prosperity to communities without obvious means of support or allowing towns on the brink of extinction to renew themselves the costs on more intangible levels may be said to outweigh the benefits and be a devil s bargain in the making Hal Rothman examines the effect of twentieth century tourism on the West and exposes that industry s darker side He tells how tourism evolved from Grand Canyon rail trips to Sun Valley ski weekends and Disneyland vacations and how the post World War II boom in air travel and luxury hotels capitalized on a surge in discretionary income for many Americans combined with newfound leisure time From major destinations like Las Vegas to revitalized towns like Aspen and Moab Rothman reveals how the introduction of tourism into a community may seem innocuous but residents gradually realize as they seek to preserve the authenticity of their communities that decision making power has subtly shifted from the community itself to the newly arrived corporate financiers And because tourism often results in a redistribution of wealth and power to outsiders observes Rothman it represents a new form of colonialism for the region By depicting the nature of tourism in the American West through true stories of places and individuals that have felt its grasp Rothman doesn t just document the effects of tourism but provides us with an enlightened explanation of the shape these changes take Deftly balancing historical perspective with an eye for what s happening in the region right now his book sets new standards for the study of tourism and is one that no citizen of the West whose life is touched by that industry can afford to ignore American Indian Culture and Research Journal ,2000 Intercultural and Interracial Relations Nancy F. Cott,1993 No detailed description available for Intercultural and Interracial Relations Dreaming of Sheep in Navajo Country Marsha Weisiger,2009 This fresh interpretation of the history of Navajo Din pastoralism recounts how a dramatic reduction of livestock on the Navajo Reservation in the 1930s an ambitious attempt by the federal government to eliminate overgrazing on an arid landscape resulted in a disastrous loss of livelihood for Navajos without significant improvement of the grazing lands New Mexico Magazine ,1963 South Africa and the United States Compared Andrew Offenburger,Christopher C.
