Navajo Pet:

TALKING GOD'S HOUSE PET Susan Fadler,2015-06-05 R U F F is an acronym that stands for Reservations Unwanted Four Footed Friends and started by Susan Fadler in the early 1990s Organized for establishing homes for the unwanted and neglected animals on the Navajo Reservation Susan began taking rescued animals into classrooms to help teach the children about animal behavior care and health She soon found out that using an animal helped extrapolate expressions of emotions which would otherwise be harbored or unexpressed by the child It also incorporated self esteem where all else had failed Using a natural catalyst puppies and kittens to teach responsible behavior proved to be extremely effective Teachers began requesting materials to help teach history geography culture and language The Wilson Foundation was instrumental in providing the necessary funding to get Susan s curriculum written It was nominated by teachers and administrators in 1996 and went on to win the 1st place Golden Bell award from the ASBA as a best new curriculum that year Pet Ownership - Are You Ready? Susan Fadler,2015-06-23 Pet Ownership Are You Ready asks important questions about the responsibility of pet ownership Dogs on the Navajo Reservation are seen wandering about starving and sometimes sick Why is this allowed to happen Who is responsible What exactly is a pet Culturally how is the dog viewed Can these problems be overcome These are some of the questions asked in this animal based curriculum which is part of the RUFF Program Reservations Unwanted Four Footed Friends Students examine different social issues and asked what they could do Responsibility is discussed as well as health issues and diseases that can be spread from unhealthy dogs and cats Questions such as what makes a good pet What is not a good pet How important is it to vaccinate a pet How important is safety for humans and pets These questions are asked and used as prompts to encourage cooperative thinking Along with problem solving skills this is a great way to teach social studies and the ability to bring a change in attitude The Oil Weekly ,1926 Navajo Pet Patricia Miles Martin,1971 Although their pets are best friends two Navajo boys do not get along at all Administration of the Labor-management Relations Act by the NLRB United States. Nasdijj,2001-09-17 THE BLOOD RUNS LIKE A RIVER THROUGH MY DREAMS transports readers to the majestic landscapes and hard Native American lives of the desert Southwest and into the embrace of a way of looking at the world that seems almost like revelation Born to a storytelling Native mother and a roughneck song singing cowboy father Nasdijj has lived on the jagged edged margins of American society yet hardship and isolation have only brought him greater clarity and a gift for language that is nothing short of breathtaking Nasdijj tells of his adopted son Tommy Nothing Fancy of the young boy's struggle with fetal alcohol syndrome and of their last fishing trip together It is a heartbreaking story written with great power and a diamondlike poetry But whether Nasdijj is telling us about his son about the chaotic alternately harrowing and comical life he led with his own parents or about the vitality and beauty of Native American culture his voice is always one of searching honesty wry humor and a nearly cosmic compassion While Nasdijj struggles with his impossible status as someone of two separate cultures he also remains a contradiction in a larger sense he cares for those who often shun him he teaches hope though he often has none for himself and he comes home to the land he then must leave THE BLOOD RUNS LIKE A RIVER THROUGH MY DREAMS is the memoir of a man who has survived a hard life with grace who has taken the past experience of pain and transformed it into a determination to care for the most vulnerable among us and who has found an almost unspeakable beauty where others would find only sadness This is a book that will touch your soul
