Navigating Boundaries The Rhetoric Of:

Navigating Boundaries Brenda Marshall,Molly A. Mayhead,2000-06-30 Marshall Mayhead and their contributors explore the discourse women use to negotiate political boundaries The analysis based on the study of five governors Nellie Tayloe Ross Martha Layne Collins Ann Richards Barbara Roberts and Christine Todd Whitman illustrates that women bring issues of caring empowerment family and inclusivity to the office These issues contrast sharply with traditional male centered ideologies and give renewed vigor to a revised moral point of view in contemporary politics The essays also demonstrate that women governors must still work within the traditional societal constructs for women Yet at the same time they need to create new paradigms that redefine women s roles and exemplify that woman s place is in the private sphere and the public political arena The work examines the common obstacles these women faced despite differences in era political affiliation geographic location and ideologies Simply by being elected each woman operated within a public private sphere duality she struggled to overcome Each woman recognized that she needed to craft appropriate rhetorical strategies to succeed in office while not abandoning the unique values and perspectives she brought to the statehouse The essays contend that women serving in the governorship resculpt the face of the office restructure the political landscape and redefine women s roles The volume will be of particular value to students and scholars dealing with issues of public address and rhetorical criticism women s communication political communication and women in politics

Navigating Boundaries Anna Shnukal,Guy Ramsay,Yuriko Nagata,2004 These essays draw upon an extensive widely dispersed body of information to narrate stories of the Asian diaspora communities of Torres Strait north Queensland

Telling Political Lives Brenda DeVore Marshall,Molly A. Mayhead,2008-06-24 This book investigates the autobiographical writings of Barbara Jordan Patricia Schroeder Geraldine Ferraro Elizabeth Dole Wilma Mankiller Hillary Rodham Clinton Madeleine Albright and Christine Todd Whitman These eight women represent the diversity that permeates the cultural backgrounds life adventures and ideologies women bring to the political table From differences in race class and geographic location to variations in personal and family experiences religious beliefs and political ideology these women illustrate many of the divergent standpoints from which women craft their lives in the United States Each essay focuses on the autobiographical text as political discourse and therefore as an appropriate site for the rhetorical construction of a personal and civic self situated within local and national political communities The collection examines issues such as the intersection between the politicization of the private and the personalization of the public evident in the women s narratives the description of U S politics the women provide in their writings the ways in which the women s personal stories craft arguments about their political ideologies the strategies these women leaders employ in navigating the gendered double binds of politics and the manner in which the women s discourse serves to encourage instruct and empower future women leaders The analyses embody and explicate the political and rhetorical strategies these leaders employ in their efforts to act on their convictions highlight the need for and reality of women's involvement in all levels of politics and serve as an impetus and inspiration for scholars and activists alike

Women's Political Discourse Molly A. Mayhead, Brenda DeVore Marshall, 2005-09-21 Although the United States ranks sixtieth internationally in women's political leadership in 2004 a record nine women held governorships sixty women served as House members with an additional three women elected as delegates from Washington D C Guam and the Virgin Islands and fourteen women occupied Senate seats How have these women managed to beat the odds in their successful attempts to enter national politics How do they fruitfully participate in the political process once they gain entry into the sacred halls of Congress and the state house Women's Political Discourse profiles women in the most highly visible political offices today highlighting their communication strategies Following an engaging overview of women's political discourse from the early twentieth century the book features selected women governors representatives and senators of the past several decades from Jeannette Rankin the first woman elected to the U S House of Representatives to Hillary Rodham Clinton The authors compare women's and men's political communication techniques and include helpful lists of the women governmental leaders of the twentieth and the twenty first century Exploring women's unique approaches to governing Women's Political Discourse seeks to lay out innovative approaches to leadership and the Gendering of Leadership Culture Kristina Horn Sheeler,2000 The Effects of Training the Speaking Peer Partners of an Augmentative Communication Device User Suzanne Patterson Sharp,1991 The Clinton Scandals and the Politics of Image Restoration Joseph R. Blaney,William L. Benoit,2001-02-28 President Bill Clinton has been more than generous Blaney and Benoit point out in providing fodder for examination of image restoration in politics His accusers have also done their part in making the public aware of the president s real and perceived shortcomings As the authors detail Bill Clinton has been the subject of a tremendous if not unprecedented amount of scrutiny by his personal and political enemies Blaney and Benoit systematically review the background of the various scandals that have marred the Clinton presidency They concentrate on the techniques used to advance the various accusations and the approaches taken by the president and his supporters to deflect the attacks All scholars and researchers interested in political communication and rhetoric in contemporary American politics and the presidency will find this to be essential reading Paving the Way for Madam President Nichola D. Gutgold,2006 When the first woman president moves into the White House she will not only be indebted to the tireless campaign workers staff press family friends and of course the voters who got her there but Madam President will also have her sisters to thank for paving the way Among these women are Margaret Chase Smith the stalwart Republican senator from Maine who made a bid for the presidency in 1964 Shirley Chisholm the fiery New York congresswoman who described herself as unbought and unbossed in 1972 Patricia Schroeder the silvery tongued and brilliant former Colorado congresswoman who briefly ran in 1988 Elizabeth Dole a North Carolina senator who made an impressive showing as a presidential candidate in 2000 and the articulate one term Illinois senator Carol Moseley Braun who ran in 2004 This book chronicles the lives communication styles and presidential bids of these five remarkable women while also addressing the obstacles and opportunities for women as presidential contenders A History of Women in the United States Doris Weatherford,2004 This four volume reference is intended for high school students and above as well as the general public The first volume opens with introductory essays on the history of feminism on women in various eras from early America through World War II and postwar eras and on women s history in terms of political participation and social activism race and ethnicity and cultural representation These essays are signed and include references Following are alphabetically arranged state articles each opening with a literary quote by a woman and comprising a narrative history supplemented with boxed features spotlighting events people and trends a timeline a biographical section on prominent women a description of relevant sites resources a state map primary document excerpts and a chart of key statistical information Appendices include a chronology primary documents statistical tables and an extensive general bibliography Numerous scholars contributed working under the editorial leadership of Weatherford U of South Florida Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com Meet the Candidate Videos John Parmelee,2003-03-30 Parmelee shows how presidential primary campaign videocassettes serve many functions for candidates on their road to the White House These videocassettes which include images and issues often based on polling data and focus groups are sent out before the primaries to battleground states to establish an initial image of the candidate A variety of methods are used to explore the videocassettes of the Democratic and Republican presidential candidates Gary Bauer Bill Bradley George W Bush Steve Forbes Al Gore and John McCain who released presidential primary meet the candidate videos during the 2000 race Frame analysis quantitative content analysis and in depth interviews with the producers of these videos were employed to provide answers to Parmelee s main research question What function do candidate videos serve in presidential primary campaigns Findings indicate that these videos which can run from 5 to 20 minutes in length serve a clear educational function to explain the candidates stand on key policy issues The videos which are mailed to voters journalists and potential donors and shown to Democratic and GOP faithful at party functions also serve as fundraisers surrogate speakers and inoculators But while the videos share some common functions each campaign targets its video to a slightly different audience based on the campaign s overall strategy Of particular interest to scholars students and other researchers involved with American presidential politics and political communications

The Primary Decision William L. Benoit,2002 Annotation Applies the functional theory of political campaign discourse to presidential primary debates Notable Speeches in Contemporary Presidential Campaigns Robert V. Friedenberg,2002-03-30 Friedenberg examines William Henry Harrison s first ever speech by an American presidential candidate on behalf of his own candidacy as a prelude to the detailed examination of notable contemporary campaign speeches Key speeches by John F Kennedy Barry Goldwater Richard Nixon Ronald Reagan Bill and Hillary Clinton and George W Bush are analyzed

When Congress Debates Theodore F. Scheckels,2000-09-30 Scheckels provides the first book length study of Congressional debating The limited work on the topic in the communication discipline has argued that such debating is tedious and inconsequential Scheckels however offers a new paradigm derived from the work of Mikhail Bakhtin that counteracts this assumption This paradigm also counters the often unvoiced assumption that debates are inherently bipolar with the initial premise that they are instead polyphonic The polyphony however goes beyond the recognition of the multiple speakers who participate and the drama they enact to the awareness of the voices these speakers introduce within their discourse These voices range from the words of authorities to the narratives of average Americans from classical prosopopoeia to what Bakhtin terms stylization Speakers also sometimes enact what Bakhtin terms double voiced discourse furthermore there are moments of what Bakhtin terms carnivalesque energy Bakhtin s work finally alerts the critic to the illusion of finalizability in Congressional debates After outlining this paradigm Scheckels uses it to examine six Congressional debates ranging in date from a 1960 Senate filibuster on a civil rights matter to the 1999 House debate on articles of impeachment and includes analyses of such flash points as the Confederate flag sexual harassment in the military and partial birth abortion These case studies reveal both the utility and the flexibility of the Bakhtinian perspective Thoughtful analyses that will be of great interest to scholars and researchers involved with rhetoric and political communication The 2000 Presidential Campaign Robert E. Denton Jr.,2002-06-30 Annotation Denton and his colleagues analyze the American 2000 presidential campaign with a special focus on political communication Choice,2009

Shea,Michael John Burton,2001 Shea and Burton present an updated and expanded version of Shea's 1996 guide to and analysis of modern American political campaign communication They cover all aspects of present day political campaigns from understanding the context of a particular campaign to strategic thinking to specific voter contact techniques Shea and Burton present an updated and expanded version of Shea's 1996 guide to and analysis of modern American political campaign communication Bringing to bear both academic and professional experience they cover all aspects of present day political campaigns from understanding the context of a particular campaign national trends the media market demographic research etc to strategic thinking developing an overall theme and strategy and to specific voter contact techniques the tactical use of fundraising paid media free media including the Internet and get out the vote drives Throughout the text Shea and Burton's discussion and analysis is peppered with examples from national state level and local campaigns This comprehensive guide is must reading for all those interested in the campaign process including candidates and political activists as well as scholars researchers and students involved with American politics and political communication Press Bias and Politics Jim A. Kuypers,2002-09-30 Kuypers charts the potential effects the printed presses and broadcast media have upon the messages of political and social leaders when they discuss controversial issues Examining over 800 press reports on race and homosexuality from 116 different newspapers Kuypers meticulously documents a liberal political bias in mainstream news This book asserts that such a bias hurts the democratic process by ignoring non mainstream left positions and vilifying many moderate and most right leaning positions leaving only a narrow brand of liberal thought supported by the mainstream press This book argues that the mainstream press in America is an anti democratic institution By comparatively analyzing press reports as well as the events that occasioned the coverage Kuypers paints a detailed picture of the politics of the American press He advances four distinct reportorial practices that inject bias into reporting offering perspectives of particular interest to scholars students and others involved with mass communication journalism and politics in the United States
