Moffatt, 2008-07-30 History's most notorious and brutal killers still enjoy fame as public fascination with their lives and their crimes continues to grow Stone Cold Souls is a detailed examination of the most brutal killers in history Moffatt does what he does best by looking at historical accounts of events analyzing them from a psychological perspective and presenting his assessment in captivating fashion He examines different types of killers offers case studies and historical context and describes what sets these cases apart from other kinds of killings Even in a day and age where pop culture has made serial crime a mainstay of movies and books the depravity of the killers profiled in this work will still shock even a desensitized reader Men women and children alike have committed crimes so atrocious that it is hard to imagine that these events are not works of fiction Moffatt examines the difficult questions that inevitably arise when one reads cases of unthinkable torture and cruelty Why Were these people simply evil or is it possible that given other circumstances they could have redirected their energies into more productive outlets The author answers these questions and others and reveals the lives and crimes of these ruthless killers Stone Cold Souls features such well known cases as Andrei Chikatilo Marc Dutroux Herman Webster Mudgett Charles Ng Leonard Lake Lawrence Bittaker Roy Norris Ed Gein Edmund Kemper Henry Lee Lucas Gilles de Rais Ivan the Terrible Richard Ramirez Holly Ann Harvey Sandy Ketchum Mary Bell Jesse Pomeroy Josef Mengele Marshall Applewhite Jeffrey Lundgren David Koresh Jim Jones Father Oliver O Grady Charles Cullin Harold Shipman Michael Swango Myra Hindley Karla Homolka Aileen Carol Lee Wuornos Elizabeth Bathory Charles Sobhraj Albert Fish Donald Harvey and Dennis Rader International Philosophical Quarterly, 1961 Political Psychology John T. Roth, Wendy Whitworth, 2004-08-23 In 1994 genocide put Rwanda on the map for most of the world It also exposed one of the most shameful scandals of the Rwandan churches the complicity of the Christian churches in the genocide Rwanda is the most Christian country in Africa More than 90% of its people are baptized Christians with the Roman Catholic and Anglican Churches having the greatest number of adherents According to Archbishop Desmond Tutu The story of Rwanda shows both sides of our humanity The churches were sometimes quite superb in what they did in the face of intimidation and at great cost to themselves But there were other times when they failed dismally and seemed to be implicated in ways that have left many disillusioned disgruntled and angry Genocide In Rwanda provides a variety of perspectives through which to assess the complex questions and issues surrounding the topic and even raise some new questions that could provide some new insight into this historical event They are questions we must ask otherwise how can the Church begin to make moral restitution change structures and behaviors and once again reveal the human face of God in our fragile world Personality Howard S. Communication and Conflict McClure,2000-08 Physician-assisted Suicide Gail N. Hawkins,2002 Advocates of physician assisted suicide insist that terminally ill individuals should have the right to choose when to end their suffering Opponents respond that if the practice becomes acceptable society will pressure patients into choosing death instead of providing them with quality end of life care This insightful anthology examines the debate over whether medical personnel should be involved in hastening the death of the terminally ill Cultic Studies Journal ,1988 Crosswinds ,1992 The Plural Self John Rowan,1999-02-23 This book s fundamental thesis is a rather challenging one the idea that the unified singular self which we all take for granted we possess does not exist fascinating and important I will certainly revisit the book when you re ready for a challenge this book is certainly worth dipping into Counselling News I thoroughly recommend this book I found it challenging provocative exciting and full of delights It makes such a change to be told that ideal personality characteristics would include a Monty Pythonesque sense of humour and a tolerance of mind altering drugs While reading it I often felt nourished and refreshed The Journal of Critical Psychology Counselling and Psychotherapy With the emergence of postmodern thinking the notion of a unified singular self appears increasingly problematic Yet for many postmodernism s proclamation of the death of the subject is equally problematic As a response to this dilemma there has been a rise of interest in pluralistic models of the self in which the person is conceptualized as a multiplicity of subpersonalities as a plurality of existential possibilities or as a being which is inextricably in dialogue with others Bringing together many disciplines and with contributions from foremost writers on self pluralism The Plural Self overviews and critiques this emerging field Drawing together theory research and practice the book expands on both the psychological and philosophical theories underlying and associated with self pluralism and presents empirical evidence in support of the self pluralistic perspective exploring its application within a clinical and therapeutic setting
