Competing Perspectives of Development Iris Borowy, Matthias Heymann, 2025-12-01 Developmental policies frequently have contradictory effects These typically play out in different sectors of life and are analyzed in different academic disciplines using different assumptions methods and bodies of literature The results translate into conflicting political demands This volume argues that keeping two separate narratives distorts reality and prevents a full understanding of development and its challenges Over the last 200 years life has become better People around the world have grown taller and lived longer benefitting from growing wealth better nutrition better housing better clothing more tax revenues and better healthcare policies Life has also become worse two centuries of industrialization have caused pollution wasteful consumerism and climate change threatening predominantly the livelihoods of those least responsible exacerbating global inequality But these narratives describe different but inseparable elements of the same history 13 papers explore ways to integrate the good and bad narratives into coherent intertwined histories using theoretical analyses and case studies from five continents It is the first publication to centrally focus on this question and its repercussions

The Judge, 1918      Growing Up a Woman Milena Kaličanin, Soňa Šnircová, 2015-10-13 This book explores contemporary transformations of the female Bildungsroman showing that the intersection of the genre and gender brought to critical attention in the context of second wave feminism remains of equal importance in the era of postfeminism The female Bildung narrative has acquired an important position in twentieth and twenty first century literature through its continuing depiction of female self discovery and emancipation as a process of negotiating the traditional divisions of female and male roles in relation to the private and public spaces Recognizing the seminal contribution of feminist criticism to the definition of the genre and the role of feminist cultural processes in its thematic developments this volume investigates more recent influences on the female Bildung narrative and the influence of the classic female Bildungsroman on contemporary cultural texts As a collection of fifteen essays written by international scholars the book offers a representative sample of the narratives of female development presenting a variety of genres including the novel the short story autobiography TV series and Internet video blogs and theoretical frameworks adopting hermeneutic postcolonial feminist and postfeminist perspectives In its diversity this volume reveals that despite the ongoing process of women's emancipation the heroine's struggle with the private/public divide has remained throughout the twentieth century and in the first decades of the new millennium a central issue in stories about the female quest for self definition The book will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of literary women and gender studies particularly those interested in the narratives of female development that represent American and British cultural contexts
