Christians and Jews in Dialogue Mary C. Boys, Sara S. Lee, 2008-09 Discover the Power of Dialogue to Heal Religious Division How can members of different faith traditions approach each other with openness and respect How can they confront the painful conflicts in their history and overcome theological misconceptions For more than twenty years Professors Mary C Boys and Sara S Lee have explored ways that Catholics and Jews might overcome mistrust and misunderstandings in order to promote commitment to religious pluralism At its best interreligious dialogue entails not simply learning about the other from the safety of one's own faith community but rather engaging in specific learning activities with members of the other faith learning in the presence of the other Drawing upon examples from their own experience Boys and Lee lay out a framework for engaging the religious other in depth With vision and insight they discuss ways of fostering relationships among participants and with key texts beliefs and practices of the other's tradition In this groundbreaking resource they offer a guide for members of any faith tradition who want to move beyond the rhetoric of interfaith dialogue and into the demanding yet richly rewarding work of developing new understandings of the religious other and of one's own tradition

Sacred Attention Margaret D. McGee, 2007 Just One Moment of Close Attention Can Be a Prayer to God Does God communicate through the natural world Through the slug on the compost pile the leaf on the lawn the stone tumbled on the beach the air that feeds my lungs the dreams that fill my nights How will I know unless I pay attention from the Introduction Paying attention is rarely easy to do It requires focus patience and a willingness to slow down traits that are hard to come by in this hurry up world But close attention to even one small piece of creation one object person routine image word or scripture can become a prayer to God opening a channel of communication between you and the Divine to allow for deep spiritual growth In this inspiring guide you will discover ways to develop a practice of attention as a means of talking and listening to God Framed on the Christian liturgical year and paired with images of the seasons of the earth each chapter includes an insightful and poignant narrative which illustrates the surprising richness to be found in every attention getting moment Following each narrative is a prayer suggested scripture readings and a specific exercise you can use to develop your own practice of attention as a means to better connect with God Accessible humorous and meaningful these words and practices will lead you further along your path toward discovering a deeper awareness of yourself and your relationship to all that is around you and within you
