Female Agencies and Subjectivities in Film and Television Diğdem Sezen, Feride Çiçekoğlu, Aslı Tunç, Ebru Thwaites Diken, 2020-10-29 This volume provides an overview of the landscape of mediated female agencies and subjectivities in the last decade. In three sections the book covers the films of women directors, television shows featuring women in lead roles and the representational struggles of women in cultural context with a special focus on changes in the transformative power of narratives and images across genres and platforms. This collection derives from the editors multi year experiences as scholars and practitioners in the field of film and television. It is an effort that aims to describe and understand female agencies and subjectivities across screen narratives. It gathers scholars from around the world to generate timely discussions and inspire fellow researchers and practitioners of film and television.

The New Advertising Valerie K. Jones, Ruth E. Brown Ph.D., Ming Wang, 2016-09-19 The era of big data has revolutionized many industries including advertising. This is a valuable resource that supplies current authoritative and inspiring information about and examples of current and forward looking theories and practices in advertising. The New Advertising: Branding Content and Consumer Relationships in the Data Driven Social Media Era supplies a breadth of information on the theories and practices of new advertising from its origins nearly a quarter of a century ago through its evolution to current uses with an eye to the future. Unlike most other books that focus on one niche topic, this two volume set investigates the overall discipline of advertising in the modern context. It sheds light on significant areas of change against the backdrop of digital data collection and use. The key topics of branding, content, interaction, engagement, big data and measurement are addressed from multiple perspectives. With contributions from experts in academia as well as the advertising and marketing industries, this unique set is an indispensable resource that is focused specifically on new approaches to and forms of advertising. Readers will gain an understanding of the distinct shifts that have taken place in advertising. They will be able to build their knowledge on frameworks for navigating and capitalizing on today's fragmented consumer focused digital media landscape and they will be prepared for what the future of advertising will likely bring.

Watching TV Harry Castleman, Walter J. Podrazik, 2024-12-16 Castleman and Podrazik present a season by season narrative that encompasses the eras of American television from the beginning in broadcast through cable and now streaming. They deftly navigate the dizzying array of contemporary choices so that no matter where you start on the media timeline, Watching TV provides the context and background to this multi billion dollar enterprise. Drawing on decades of research, the authors weave together personalities, popular shows, corporate strategies, historical events and changing technologies, enhancing the main commentary with additional elements that include fall prime time schedule grids for every season, date box timelines, highlighted key text and selected photos. Full of facts, firsts, insights and exploits from now back to the earliest days, Watching TV is the standard chronology of American television and reading it is akin to channel surfing through history. The fourth edition updates the story into the 2020s and looks ahead to the next waves of change. This new
