Of Love and War David Rubin,2005 This is an anthology of the works of four leading Hindi poets in translation of the genre and period roughly between the two world wars known as Chayavad This volume comes with a critical introduction by David Rubin who contextualizes this literary movement within the larger socio political movement of the time Beyond English Bhavya Tiwari,2021-11-04 Honorable Mention Harry Levin Prize 2022 American Comparative Literature Association Beyond English World Literature and India radically alters the debates on world literature that hinge on the model of circulation and global capital by deeply engaging with the idea of the world and world making in South Asia Tiwari argues that Indic words for world vishva jagat sansar offer a nuanced understanding of world literature that is antithetical to a commodified and standardized monolingual globe She develops a comparative study of the concept of world literature vishva sahitya in Rabindranath Tagore s works the desire for a new world in the lyrics of the Hindi shadowism chhayavaad poets and world making in Thakazhi Sivasankara Pillai s Chemmeen 1956 and Arundhati Roy s The God of Small Things 1997 By emphasizing the centrality of literature sahitya through a close reading of texts Tiwari orients world literature toward comparative literature and comparative literature toward a worldliness that is receptive to the poetics of a world in its original language and in translation

Modernizing Composition Garrett Field,2017-03-22 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more The study of South Asian music falls under the purview of ethnomusicology whereas that of South Asian literature falls under South Asian studies As a consequence of this academic separation scholars rarely take notice of connections between South Asian song and poetry Modernizing Composition overcomes this disciplinary fragmentation by examining the history of Sinhala language song and poetry in twentieth century Sri Lanka Garrett Field describes how songwriters and poets modernized song and poetry in response to colonial and postcolonial formations The story of this modernization is significant in that it shifts focus from India s relationship to the West to little studied connections between Sri Lanka and North India

Kāma's Flowers Valerie Ritter,2011-09-01 Kama s Flowers documents the transformation of Hindi poetry during the crucial period of 1885 1925 As Hindi was becoming a national language and Indian nationalism was emerging Hindi authors articulated a North Indian version of modernity by reenvisioning nature While their writing has previously been seen as an imitation of European Romanticism Valerie Ritter shows its unique and particular function in North India Description of the natural world recalled traditional poetics particularly erotic and devotional poetics but was now used to address sociopolitical concerns as authors created literature to advocate for a national character and to address a growing audience of female readers Examining Hindi classics translations from English poetry literary criticism and little known popular works Ritter combines translations with fresh literary analysis to show the pivotal role of nature in how modernity was understood Bringing a new body of literature to English language readers Kama s Flowers also reveals the origins of an
