Tristan Tzara and Mário de Andrade's Journeys from Ethnography to the Avant-Garde Nefeli Zygopoulou, 2021-05-14 This book presents a comparative study of Tristan Tzara 1896 1963 and Mário de Andrade 1893 1945 analysing their contributions to oral language traditions and to the body of criticism on modernism This is the first work to offer an analysis of Tzara's posthumously published prose Personnage d'insomnie and the first in the English language that explores de Andrade's libretto for the opera Café as well as other examples of their poetry and prose The Romanian Jewish poet and writer Tzara later a naturalised French citizen became a central figure in the European avant garde from 1916 when he took part in the Dada Movement Mário de Andrade the Brazilian poet writer and musicologist of mixed origins was a contemporary of Tzara and a similarly central figure in the 1922 São Paulo Modern Art Week that defined Brazilian Modernism Both emerged from very different backgrounds but they followed a parallel creative path This book discusses their research and adaptation of various language manifestations ethnopoetics and folk traditions that led them to the creation of distinct and individual styles The historical and socio political events of the late 1930s would later prompt both authors to develop militant poetics Through chronologically compatible case studies the reader will discover that Tzara and de Andrade alongside their playful language actively criticised cultural imperialism and advocated against hate Journeys can be physical and intellectual they can crisscross leave traces and overlap This book takes the reader from two starting points a small Romanian town in the foothills of the Carpathians and a two storey house in an unusually tranquil street in São Paulo Brazil to the heart of the twentieth century avant garde As it shows Tristan Tzara and Mário de Andrade traversed borders and geographical points and their poetics meet in Mozambique Parisian cafés and Bantu chants Oeuvres complètes Émile Zola, 1880

Surrealism and the People's Republic of China Lauren Walden, 2025-11-13 This study investigates cultural exchange between the Surrealist movement and the People's Republic of China 1949 present Surrealist art was officially prohibited under Mao's rule 1949 1976 However the book interrogates potent tensions in clandestinely created surrealist artworks by Zhao Shou and Sha Qi who discovered the movement while studying abroad Furthermore Walden explores how several European Surrealists aligned Chinese calligraphy with automatism as well as Michel Leiris and Marcel Marié's travels to Maoist China and their diametrically opposed visions of the nation Amidst post socialism the book posits that the 85 New Wave consciously employed Surrealism to process the traumatic Cultural Revolution 1966 1976 and react to newfound societal freedoms Subsequently the volume considers why a new artistic tendency of surrealist pop emerged in the 1990s At present Lauren Walden reveals how Surrealism has become officialised and even promoted by Chinese authorities owing to revolutionary resonances between traditional Chinese art and the western avant garde The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history Chinese studies and Surrealism Chapter 4 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC

Dismemberment in Drama Dismemberment of Drama is an essay collection which considers the dramatic possibility contained in the images and narratives of dismemberment frequently recurring on the western stage The Classical Tragedies of Sophocles and Euripides the Romanticism of Kleist the surrealism of Artaud and the contemporary drama of Suzan Lori Parks and Marina Carr are just some of the fractured and fragmented bodies analyzed in this collection Both individually and in concert the contributors ask what a dismembered body means Such an inquiry allows them to confront dismemberment as a theoretical category which understands such twentieth century innovations as the Theatre of Cruelty the Epic Theatre the Open Theater and documentary theatre as part of a long dramatic tradition Dismemberment in drama examines the tenuous bond between representation and the object being represented by highlighting the dismemberment of drama as a form that occurs during drama TM s repeated theorizations of its own enactment There is a conflict between disintegration and unity inherent in mimesis theatrical phenomenology and performance      Proceedings of the Royal Society of Edinburgh affirms Marguerite de Navarre s status not only as a political figure author or proponent of nonschismatic reform but also as a visionary In her life and writings the queen of Navarre dissected the injustices that her society and its institutions perpetuated against women We also see evidence that she used her literary texts especially the Heptameron as an exploratory space in which to generate a creative vision for institutional reform The Heptameron s approach to reform emerges from statistical analysis of the text s seventy two tales which reveals new insights into trends within the work including the different categories of wrongdoing by male institutional representatives from the Church and aristocracy as well as the varying responses to injustice that characters in the tales employ as they pursue reform Throughout its chapters The Visionary Queen foregrounds the trope of the labyrinth a potent symbol in early modern Europe that encapsulated both the fallen world and redemption two themes that underlie Marguerite s project of reform      Annual Report of the Secretary
