The contributions and experiences of English language teachers themselves especially their work in overseas contexts have frequently been overlooked. This volume aims to document the complexity of ELT as work. TM in new global economic and cultural conditions and to explore how this complexity is realised in the everyday experiences of ELT teachers. The development of ELT from the colonial experience to its current status as a global commodity is explored. ELT is then situated in the discourses of globalisation specifically within Appadurai TM s theorisation of global flows of people images ideas technology and money or scapes. Within this framework narratives are constructed from the experiences of Native speaking English teachers. These reveal much about the personal pedagogical and cultural dimensions of ELT work in non Centre countries and will contribute to a greater understanding of the intercultural dimensions of ELT for all those
