Morisot Diary:

Morisot's Modernism and Impressionist Art Claire Moran,2025-09-29 This volume seeks to reframe French Impressionist painter Berthe Morisot 1841-95 in the history of art via a focus on the spaces and people that informed her work and thereby offers a new interpretation of Impressionism and of modernist aesthetics. Claire Moran utilizes close visual analyses of artworks in particular those of family friends domestic servants and acquaintances textual analysis of Morisot's journals and letters investigation of late nineteenth century advice manuals magazines and advertisements in relation to Morisot's life and work examination of housing floor plans and gardens and the study of specific household objects that recur in her work and their history. This multi pronged method of analysis grounded in Morisot's lived experience will allow a new understanding of Morisot's art to emerge one with the potential to not only highlight the modernity of her aesthetics but also question both public and critical assumptions about Impressionism. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history gender studies French studies and history of design.

Growing Up with the Impressionists Julie Manet,2017-08-24 Julie Manet the niece of Edouard Manet and the daughter of the most famous female Impressionist artist Berthe Morisot was born in Paris on 14 November 1878 into a wealthy and cultured milieu at the height of the Impressionist era. Many young girls still confide their inner thoughts to diaries and it is hardly surprising that with her mother giving all her encouragement Julie would prove to be no exception to the rule. At the age of ten Julie began writing her memoirs but it wasn't until August 1893 at fourteen that Julie began her diary in earnest no neat leather bound volume with lock and key but just untidy notes scribbled in old exercise books often in pencil the presentation as spontaneous as its contents. Her extraordinary diary newly translated here by an expert on Impressionism reveals a vivid depiction of a vital period in France's cultural history seen through the youthful and precocious eyes of the youngest member of what was surely the most prominent artistic family of the time.

Critical Readings in Impressionism and Post-Impressionism Mary Tompkins Lewis,2023-12-22 The essays in this wide ranging beautifully illustrated volume capture the theoretical range and scholarly rigor of recent criticism that has fundamentally transformed the study of French Impressionist and Post Impressionist art. Readers are invited to consider the profound issues and penetrating questions that lie beneath this perennially popular body of work as the contributors examine the art world of late nineteenth century France including detailed looks at Monet Manet Pissarro Degas Cézanne Morisot Seurat Van Gogh and Gauguin. The authors offer fascinating new perspectives placing the artworks from this period in wider social and historical contexts. They explore these painters' pictorial and market strategies the critical reception and modern criteria the paintings engendered and the movement's historic role in the formation of an avant garde tradition. Their research reflects the wealth of new documents critical approaches and scholarly exhibitions that have fundamentally altered our understanding of Impressionism and Post Impressionism. These essays several of which have previously been familiar only to scholars provide instructive models of in depth critical analysis and of the competing art historical methods that have
