Observers from Abroad Martin A. Miller, 2025-03-31 Observers from Abroad offers an examination of published and archival images of Soviet Russia providing a deeper understanding of the complexities and vicissitudes of its political culture. The book argues that photography when accurately interpreted can be utilized as primary historical evidence that has the potential to both enhance and counter traditional verbal analysis. Employing a number of images of the Soviet Union captured by gifted documentary photographers from the West who received visas to work in Moscow from the Bolshevik seizure of power in 1917 to the collapse of the USSR in 1991 the book also assesses the intentions of the photographers who acted as conscious observers capturing visual evidence under the restraining conditions of state surveillance. Each chapter provides a closer look at the life and work of these photographers with a wealth of historical images and discussion. Richly illustrated and engaging this volume will be ideal for students scholars and readers interested in Soviet history twentieth century history and the history of photography.

Moscow Racetrack Anatoly Gladilin, 2007-05-02 Moscow Racetrack is the story of the disillusioned Teacher a habitu of the track who one day lucks into big winnings. The KGB who already had their eye on the Teacher because of his anti Soviet essays on Russian history that are circulating in samizdat sends the lucky winner and his pal to Paris so they can test their skills on foreign turf and earn some hard currency for the impoverished Soviet government.

European Particle Accelerator Conference (Epac 94) (In 3 Volumes) Christine Petit-jean-genaz, Vic Suller, 1994-11-26 These proceedings aim to provide a comprehensive overview of research technology and applications in the field of accelerators. Contributions from the entire field of accelerators are presented including low and high energy machines and medical and industrial accelerators.

Autopia Peter Wollen, Joe Kerr, 2002 The reach of the car today is almost universal and its effect on landscapes cityscapes cultures indeed on the very fabric of the modern world is profound. Cars have brought benefits to individuals in terms of mobility and expanded horizons but the cost has been very high in terms of damage to the environment and the consumption of precious resources. Despite the growing belief that a Faustian price is now being paid for the freedom cars have bestowed on us we are none the less manufacturing them in ever greater numbers. Autopia is the first book to explore the culture of the motor car in the widest possible sense. Featuring newly commissioned essays by writers critics historians artists and film makers as well as reprinting key texts it examines the effect of the car throughout the world including the USA Western and Eastern Europe Japan China Cuba India and South Africa. In this book the car is treated neither as a technological fetish object nor as an instrument of danger. Instead it is examined as a hugely important determinant of 20th century culture neither wholly good nor an unmitigated disaster and certainly endlessly fascinating. Contributors include Michael Bracewell Ziauddin Sardar Al Rees Martin Pawley Donald Richie and Peter Hamilton. Key texts by Marshall Berman Jane Jacobs Roland Barthes Marc Auge and others.
