Madeline Clements

Moth Smoke:

Moth Smoke Mohsin Hamid, 2012-12-04 The debut novel from the internationally bestselling author of Exit West and The Reluctant Fundamentalist both shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize In contemporary Pakistan Daru Shezad is fired from his banking job in Lahore and thus begins a decline that plummets him into a dangerous world of drugs and crime Fast paced and unexpected Moth Smoke portrays a Pakistan far more vivid and complex than the exoticized images of South Asia that are oft portrayed in the West This complex story established Mohsin Hamid as an internationally important writer of substance and imagination and the premier Pakistani author of our time a promise he has amply fulfilled with each successive book This debut novel meanwhile remains as compelling and deeply relevant to the moment as when it appeared more than a decade ago

Metaphor and Diaspora in Contemporary Writing J. Sell, 2012-01-06 Choose ten major contemporary diasporic writers from Abdulrazak to Zadie ask ten leading authorities to write about their use of metaphor and this is the result a timely reassertion of metaphor's unrivalled capacity to encompass sameness and difference and create understanding and empathy across boundaries of nationality race and ethnicity

Writing Islam from a South Asian Muslim Perspective Madeline Clements, 2016-04-29 This book explores whether the post 9/11 novels of Rushdie Hamid Aslam and Shamsie can be read as part of an attempt to revise modern knowledge of the Islamic world using globally distributed English language literature to reframe Muslims potential to connect with others Focussing on novels including Shalimar the Clown The Reluctant Fundamentalist The Wasted Vigil and Burnt Shadows the author combines aesthetic historical political and spiritual considerations with analyses of the popular discourses and critical discussions surrounding the novels and scrutinises how the writers have been appropriated as authentic spokespeople by dominant political and cultural forces Finally she explores how as writers of Indian and Pakistani origin Rushdie Hamid Aslam and Shamsie negotiate their identities and the tensions of being seen to act as Muslim representatives in relation to the complex international and geopolitical context in which they write

Routledge Companion to Pakistani Anglophone Writing Aroosa Kanwal, Saiyma Aslam, 2018-10-10 The Routledge Companion to Pakistani Anglophone Writing forms a theoretical comprehensive and critically astute overview of the history and future of Pakistani literature in English Dealing with key issues for global society today from terrorism religious extremism fundamentalism corruption and intolerance to matters of love hate loss belongingness and identity conflicts this Companion brings together over thirty essays by leading and emerging scholars and presents the transformations and continuities in Pakistani anglophone writing since its inauguration in 1947 to today contestations and controversies that have not only informed creative writing but also subverted certain stereotypes in favour of a dynamic representation of Pakistani Muslim experiences a case for a Pakistani canon through a critical perspective on how different writers and their works have at different times both consciously and unconsciously helped to realise and extend a uniquely Pakistani idiom Providing a comprehensive yet manageable introduction to cross cultural relations and to historical regional local and global contexts that are essential to reading Pakistani anglophone literature The Routledge Companion to Pakistani Anglophone Writing is key reading for researchers and academics in Pakistani anglophone literature history and culture It is also relevant to other disciplines such as terror studies post 9 11 literature gender studies postcolonial studies feminist studies human rights diaspora studies space and mobility studies religion and contemporary South Asian literatures and cultures

From Popular Goethe to Global Pop Ines

Detmers, Birte Heidemann, 2013-11-01 This essay collection embarks on a historical voyage into the idea of the West while contextualising its relevance to the contemporary discourses on cultural difference Although the idea of the West predates both colonial and Orientalist projects it has been radically reshaped by the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 the end of the Cold War and the 9 11 attacks In the wake of these developments this collection attends to the nebulous paradigm shifts that account for a reconfiguration of the conventional coordinates of the West West vs Rest Orient vs Occident The essays featured in this collection draw upon a wide range of theories from a comparative perspective Taken together the collection covers a vast terrain of textual and non textual sources including novels political and poetological programs video clips and hypertexts while exploring the formal aesthetic representations of the West from interdisciplinary perspectives as diverse as German classicism post modern Britain Canada China Ireland and the postcolonial world

Routledge Handbook of Ecocriticism and Environmental Communication Scott Slovic, Swarnalatha Rangarajan, Vidya

Sarveswaran, 2019-02-01 Ecocriticism and environmental communication studies have for many years co existed as parallel disciplines occasionally crossing paths but typically operating in separate academic spheres These fields are now rapidly converging and this handbook aims to reinforce the common concerns and methodologies of the sibling disciplines The Routledge Handbook of Ecocriticism and Environmental Communication charts the history of the relationship between ecocriticism and environmental communication studies while also highlighting key new paradigms in information studies diverse examples of practical applications of environmental communication and textual analysis and the patterns and challenges of environmental communication in non Western societies Contributors to this book include literary film and religious studies scholars communication studies specialists environmental historians practicing journalists art critics linguists ethnographers sociologists literary theorists and others but all focus their discussions on key issues in textual representations of human nature relationships and on the challenges and possibilities of environmental communication The handbook is designed to map existing trends in both ecocriticism and environmental communication and to predict future directions This handbook will be an essential reference for teachers students and practitioners of environmental literature film journalism communication and rhetoric and well as the broader meta discipline of environmental humanities

The Journal of the Senate Massachusetts. General Court. Senate,1905 Global Matters Paul Jay,2014-02-15 As the pace of cultural globalization accelerates the discipline of literary studies is undergoing dramatic transformation Scholars and critics focus increasingly on theorizing difference and complicating the geographical framework defining their approaches At the same time Anglophone literature is being created by a remarkably transnational multicultural group of writers exploring many of the same concerns including the intersecting effects of colonialism decolonization migration and globalization Paul Jay surveys these developments highlighting key debates within literary and cultural studies about the impact of globalization over the past two decades Global Matters provides a concise informative overview of theoretical critical and curricular issues driving the transnational turn in literary studies and how these issues have come to dominate contemporary global fiction as well Through close imaginative readings Jay analyzes the intersecting histories of colonialism decolonization and globalization engaged by an array of texts from Africa Europe South Asia and the Americas including Zadie Smith's White Teeth Junot Diaz's The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao Kiran Desai's The Inheritance of Loss Arundhati Roy's The God of Small Things Vikram Chandra's Red Earth and Pouring Rain Mohsin Hamid's Moth Smoke and Zakes Mda's The Heart of Redness A timely intervention in the most exciting debates within literary studies Global Matters is a comprehensive guide to the transnational nature of Anglophone literature today and its relationship to the globalization of Western culture

Report of the Treasurer and Receiver-general Massachusetts. Treasury Department,1916 Religious and Racial Profiling in Mohsin Hamid's Novel "The Reluctant Fundamentalist" Muhammad Rizwan,2016-01-20 Research Paper postgraduate from the year 2016 in the subject American Studies Literature language English abstract The focus of this paper is the plight the Muslims of the world especially those living in America face due to religious discriminations This discrimination is the result of the religious profiling of the media and the institutions which are working to spread the ideology of the West to the rest of the world Everything is under their control so they manipulate the facts Many Asian writers have tried to portray the true picture of the scene but it remains a great crisis need to be resolved This paper will examine the core issues resulting from the religious profiling with the references from the novel The Reluctant Fundamentalist written by Mohsin Hamid in the context of post 9 11 milieu of the world especially about the dealing with the Muslims Journal of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Massachusetts. General Court. House of Representatives,1904 The Influence of the 9/11 novel on Muslim Writing Matthias Dickert,2017-10-11 Scientific Essay from the year 2017 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz language English abstract Since 9 11 many Muslims struggle with their identity and are exposed to xenophobia violence vicious defamation harassment or displacement In short the notion Muslim in relation to that day has become a stigma It is against this background and the post traumatic aftermath of September 11 2001 where many novelists disposing of a Muslim background wrote their novels The logical consequence from this was that Muslim writing as such has become more complex stressing the standpoints of hearer and teller as elements of distortion Interesting though is the fact that some novels dealing with Islam and Muslim characters have taken up and used the Oriental stereotypes where Muslims are according to Said seen as either oil suppliers or potential terrorists For a long time Muslim characters in literature have been connected to this negative image which Said also labels as other and Spivak as subaltern The hybrid in which many Muslim characters are often set is also still equated with the exotic thus ignoring the energy of Bhabha s term and its positive realizations in fiction It is therefore one aim of this essay to throw light on this matter and to shortly reflect the present influence of 9 11 on Muslim writing Newsline ,2006
