Mother Machine From Artificial Insemination To Artificial Wombs:

The Mother Machine Gena Corea,1985 A few pages on lesbians but a subject of some interest to lesbians P Thorslev

The Virtual Embodied John Wood,2002-02-07 The Virtual Embodied is intended to inform provoke and delight It explores the ideas of embodiment knowledge space virtue and virtuality to address fundamental questions about technology and human presence It juxtaposes cutting edge theories polemics and creative practices to uncover ethical aesthetic and ecological implications of why how and in particular where human actions observations and insights take place In The Virtual Embodied many of the authors artists performers and designers apply their interdisciplinary passions to questions of embodied knowledge and virtual space In doing so it chooses to acknowledge the limitations of the conventional linear book and uses them creatively to challenge existing genres of multi media and networked consumerism Mothering Evelyn Nakano Glenn,Grace Chang,Linda Rennie Forcey,2016-04-29 This volume presents a variety of unique perspectives on mothering as a socially constructed relationship assessing many of the political legal and cultural debates surrounding the issue Regulating Assisted Reproductive Technologies Amel Alghrani,2018-11-22 Reproductive science continues to revolutionise reproduction and propel us further into uncharted territories The revolution signalled by the birth of Louise Brown after IVF in 1978 prompted governments across Europe and beyond into regulatory action Forty years on there are now dramatic and controversial developments in new reproductive technologies Technologies such as uterus transplantation that may enable unisex gestation and babies gestated by dad or artificial wombs that will completely divorce reproduction from the human body and allow babies to be gestated by machines usher in a different set of legal ethical and social questions to those that arose from IVF This book revisits the regulation of assisted reproduction and advances the debate on from the now much discussed issues that arose from IVF offering a critical analysis of the regulatory challenges raised by new reproductive technologies on the horizon Readings in Health Care Ethics Elisabeth Boetzkes,Wilfrid J. Waluchow,2000-05-29 Readings in Health Care Ethics provides a wide ranging selection of important and engaging contributions to the field of health care ethics Designed as a course text for undergraduate use the anthology includes fifty six selections grouped into ten sections Included are a wide range of the most important essays both on long standing issues in biomedical ethics such as consent euthanasia and research involving human subjects and on issues that have particularly come to the fore in recent years such as the allocation of scarce medical resources and genetic alteration An extensive introduction provides a accessible general overview of ethical theory for those without previous familiarity with philosophical concepts Selected Writings on Self-organization, Philosophy, Bioethics, and Judaism Henri Atlan,2011 During the last thirty years biophysicist and philosopher Henri Atlan has been a major voice in contemporary European philosophical and bio ethical debates In a massive oeuvre that ranges from biology and neural network theory to Spinoza s thought and the history of philosophy and from artificial intelligence and information theory to Jewish mysticism and to contemporary medical ethics

Atlan has come to offer an exceptionally powerful philosophical argumentation that is as hostile to scientism as it is attentive to biology's conceptual and experimental rigor as careful with concepts of rationality as it is committed to rethinking the human place in a radically determined yet forever changing world Book Jacket Big Data Analytics and Intelligent Applications for Smart and Secure Healthcare Services Kamal Upreti, Nishant Kumar, Mohammad Shabbir Alam, Mohammad Shahnawaz Nasir, Debabrata Samanta, 2025-02-26 The book provides a comprehensive discussion for utilizing computational models such as artificial neural networks agent based models and decision field theory for reliability engineering It further presents optimization solutions for smart and secure healthcare services The text showcases how to predict the failure and repair rates of healthcare subsystems using computational intelligence This book Explores how data driven methodologies and advanced computational intelligence are revolutionizing the healthcare industry promoting efficiency accessibility and sustainability Highlights the pivotal role that big data analytics plays in harnessing vast amounts of patient records clinical information and real time medical data to provide timely insights for healthcare professionals and policymakers Discusses the integration of artificial intelligence and machine learning techniques in healthcare with a focus on revolutionizing disease detection treatment planning and resource allocation Lays the foundation for developing sustainable healthcare systems that are adaptable to long term challenges such as population growth emerging diseases and resource constraints Covers computational intelligence techniques like fuzzy logic neural networks and evolutionary computations emphasizing their role in solving complex data driven healthcare problems Includes topics like data management visualization protection and complex adaptive systems as well as hybrid computational intelligence techniques for synergistic problem solving strategies This volume will serve as an ideal text for senior undergraduates graduate students and academic researchers in fields including electrical engineering electronics and communications engineering computer engineering and mathematics

Feminist Collections, 1989 The Journal of Medicine and Philosophy, 1986 Modern Family Law D. Kelly Weisberg, Susan Frelich Appleton, 2002 If you want insight into the Family Law issues that reflect our contemporary social and economic diversity consider Modern Family Law Second Edition Blending cases notes and problems with interdisciplinary materials this solid yet sophisticated learning tool offers contemporary coverage of the legal issues facing today's families the casebook covers essential material the text reflects the social diversity of the modern family and examines the women's movement The children's rights movement changing sexual mores alternative family formations and developments in reproductive technology valuable interdisciplinary perspectives include excerpts notes and questions from history psychology sociology social work medicine and philosophy thorough coverage of Family Law basics sets the stage for more expansive topics to heighten student awareness of the real impact of the law on people's lives The authors include narratives that look behind the cases and statutes the authors are highly regarded in both Family Law and feminist circles For The Second Edition The authors add important new material without lengthening the book new cases problems and materials throughout the thoroughly updated text latest coverage of same sex marriage including Baker v State from Vermont and other recent developments in gay and lesbian rights grandparents rights illustrated by the Troxel case heard by the U S Supreme court a host of high profile cases such as Stenberg v Carhart The Supreme Court s most recent abortion case State v Oakley restricting a deadbeat parent s right to procreate A Z v B Z resolving a post divorce dispute about frozen embryos In re Marriage of Buzzanca determining parentage for children of assisted reproduction For The most current coverage of the full range of Family Law issues from regulation of the intact marriage to alternatives to adoption with a distinctly progressive approach consider Modern Family Law Second Edition The Bedroom and the State Angus McLaren, Arlene Tigar McLaren, 1997 The decline of the birth rate is arguably the most important social change to develop in Canada in this century But even those actively involved in contemporary struggles over abortion and reproductive technologies are largely ignorant of the historical context of the debate The Bedroom and the State is the first comprehensive and balanced account of how Canadian men and women have sought to limit births and how public figures have attempted to turn such private concerns to political purposes Hailed when it first appeared as a landmark history of Canadian fertility control this second edition offers an updated conclusion and a new final chapter dealing with developments and events from 1969 to the present

Modernity and Mass Culture James Naremore, Patrick Brantlinger, 1991 The twelve essays in Modernity and Mass Culture provide a broad and captivating overview of what has come to be known as culture studies Texas Journal This is a wide ranging analysis of the relationship among industrialization democracy and art in the 20th century U S and British scholars discuss the interaction of high popular and mass art showing how Western culture as a whole is affected by the transition from the modern to the postmodern era American Journal of Public Health, 1989 Includes section Books and reports Communist Viewpoint, 1988 Families in Canada Today Margrit Eichler, 1988 "The Hospital is a Uterus" Tove Holmqvist, 2000 Symposium on Biomedical Technology and Health Care, 1992 Should Parents be Licensed? Peg Tittle, 2004 Presenting a debate on the need for a national parenting policy this volume asks whether the time is approaching for parents to be formally educated even licensed before they can take on the responsibilities of child care New Books on Women and Feminism, 1986 Human Reproduction Christine Overall, 1993 Who owns frozen human embryos Are surrogate motherhood arrangements dangerous for women Should access to in vitro fertilization be limited or increased With the development of complex reproductive technologies and the ensuing controversies in reproductive ethics there is an urgent need for more careful examination of moral principles current practices and social policies pertaining to reproduction The issues examined in this collection of nine papers focusing of the Canadian experience include abortion the cryopreservation of embryos the selective termination of fetuses within multiple pregnancies social policy for gestational surrogacy and the regulation of in vitro fertilization Adopting a feminist perspective the book places reproductive autonomy at the center of debates about the control of reproduction
