The Ethics of Working Class Autobiography Elizabeth Bidinger, 2006-07-19 The ethical dimension of autobiography is emerging as an important area of study Scholars now recognize that an autobiography must be read with an element of caution since it represents not so much the literal truth as the author's perception of people and events a perspective sometimes unflattering to those portrayed Focusing on the ethics of autobiography this volume analyzes the works of four writers who spent much of their youth in working class circumstances yet became highly educated intellectual professionals It examines the ways in which each author confronts his or her past and how the authors represent their working class family members Texts discussed are Growing Up by Russell Baker 1982 Brothers and Keepers by John Edgar Wideman 1984 A Woman in Amber by Agate Nesaule 1995 and Clear Springs by Bobbie Ann Mason 1999 Each work recounts the author's struggle with a particular societal element such as gender race class division or region While Baker's memoir provides an example of positive balanced characterizations of working class relatives the texts by Wideman Nesaule and Mason illustrate the ethical pitfalls in portraying less powerful family members in one's life story An overview of trends in working class autobiography and a brief survey regarding the critical reception of each work are included William Mason John William Draper, 1924 Bess Streeter Aldrich Carol Miles Petersen, 1995-01-01 Beloved by readers for decades Bess Streeter Aldrich earned a national reputation with a long list of best selling novels and with stories appearing in major magazines such as Ladies Home Journal Harper's Weekly Colliers McCalls and The Saturday Evening Post Her most famous novel A Lantern in Her Hand has remained a favorite since first published in 1928 Carol Miles Petersen has thoroughly researched Aldrich consulting Aldrich's family neighbors and friends poring over letters and newspapers and reading Aldrich's work again and again In Bess Streeter Aldrich she reveals a woman as strong and substantial as Aldrich's fictional heroines Born in Iowa in 1881 Bess Streeter grew up and attended college there After becoming a teacher she met and fell in love with Charles Cap Aldrich formerly Captain in the U S Army After their marriage in 1907 they moved to Elmwood Nebraska where Bess devoted herself to raising children while Cap became a banker Bess began to write and sell short stories winning a national award and enjoying the celebrity of a famous author It appeared that the Aldriches would live happily ever after however in 1925 Captain Aldrich suddenly died The responsibilities of raising the family and managing the bank as a partial owner fell upon Bess With the stock market crash of 1929 the nation's banking system spun into chaos more than ever her family her bank and her town depended on Bess Aldrich's heroism is of the old fashioned kind not a moment of glory but a lifetime of effort not a battle with a foe but a creation of love humor and kindness Her stories were written to remind her readers of the joy of life Carol Miles Petersen formerly taught at the University of Nebraska Lincoln She is editor of the Collected Short Works of Bess Streeter Aldrich Nebraska 1995 The New Negro Jeffrey C.
