More Than Cricket:

Untethered Marcia Lynn McClure, 2012-06 As Cricket lay in the soft comfort of her bed continuing to let her mind nest on thoughts of how truly wonderfully attractive Texas Ranger Thibodaux was she giggled thinking that looking at him was more refreshing than swimming naked on a summer Sunday afternoon He was a tall drink of water far taller than most of the other men in town and his shoulders were as broad as the state of Texas itself Sky blue eyes bronze skin square jaw and dark hair and that smile In truth Cricket had only seen Heathro Thibodaux smile three or four times but each incidence was something she'd never forget His smile was bright and white and the gold tooth he owned on the upper right incisor of his smile only embellished the richness of it That one tooth Cricket's smile faded as she thought of it Oh no doubt the flash only added to the splendor of his smile Yet it also served as a reminder to anyone who had ever read or heard of what had happened in Texas one year before No doubt it was a powerful remembrance to Heathro Thibodaux himself a visual indication of true barbarity pain and loss In that moment Cricket wondered when Heathro looked in the mirror each morning and saw that tooth did he think of eight dead girls buried in the bottom of a bleak and barren canyon Did he think of the eight dead girls that he for no fault of his own had been unable to save
