Mapping the Private Geography Gerri Reaves, 2001-01-10 This study of autobiographical writing and its reflection of personal and national identity analyzes the different ways in which these authors balance individual American identity with collective identities and reinvent their familial cultural and national engenderings In each of the works discussed a private geography a psychological map a myth an ideology or a fiction is posited while its author explores claims to the ownership of memory history and the self The American Roadside in Émigré Literature, Film, and Photography Elsa

Court, 2020-01-06 The American Roadside in migr Literature Film and Photography 1955 1985 traces the origin of a postmodern iconography of mobile consumption equating roadside America with an authentic experience of the United States through the postwar road narrative a narrative which Elsa Court argues has been shaped by and through white male migr narratives of the American road in both literature and visual culture While stressing that these narratives are limited in their understanding of the processes of exclusion and unequal flux in experiences of modern automobility the book works through four case studies in the American works of European born authors Vladimir Nabokov Robert Frank Alfred Hitchcock and Wim Wenders to unveil an early phenomenology of the postwar American highway one that anticipates the works of late twentieth century spatial theorists Jean Baudrillard Michel Foucault and Marc Aug and sketches a postmodern aesthetic of western mobility and consumption that has become synonymous with contemporary America City Lights Books Ralph T. Cook, Lori A. Cook, 1992 Since 1955 City Lights Bookshop in San Francisco has published over 230 titles and its 1 500 authors include Jack Kerouac James Joyce Ernest Hemingway Hilda Doolittle Allen Ginsberg Goethe Walt Whitman Gregory Corso and Karl Marx Provides complete information on all City Lights publications from 1955 through 1990 Rereading

Shepard Leonard Wilcox, 1993-02-15 Rereading Shepard draws together 13 original theoretical perspectives on one of America s most important contemporary playwrights Representing a range of critical approaches including semiotics deconstruction and feminism the essays address recent debates emerging in Shepard criticism These include the status of Shepard s texts within the modernist tradition on the one hand and a developing post modernism on the other and the feminist debate over Shepard s drama does it reinforce a masculinist world or does it provide some oppositional stance toward patriarchal master narratives Dis/figuring Sam Shepard Johan Callens, 2007 This illustrated volume covers the career of Sam Shepard the provocative American playwright scriptwriter actor and director through an introductory survey followed by in depth analyses of representative selections from the one acts Action States of Shock experimental collaborations with Joseph Chaikin Savage Love and by now classic family plays Buried Child A Lie of the Mind It ranges from Shepard s unpublished adaptation of Marlowe s Doctor Faustus through the textual variants and political context of Operation Sidewinder to Robert Altman s movie version of Fool for Love besides offering brief comparisons with fellow dramatists Albee and Beckett and visual artists Edward Weston Marsden Hartley Several performance analyses supplement the textual criticism and provide a sample of European directorial approaches Together these takes offer a composite picture of an artist whose output over the past forty years has turned him into a figurehead of twentieth century drama studied and produced all over the world with a keen eye for his idiosyncratic and critical view of what it means to be American Theatre Record , 2007 The American Motel Michael Karl Witzel, 2000 Renowned pop culture historian Witzel examines the evolution architecture and decor of the American motel in all its forms from the traditional motor court to gimmicks such as miniature log cabins cement teepees and more 200 photos 150 in color American Drama Gary A. Richardson, 1995 American Drama Colonial to Contemporary is intended for students of American Drama in English Theatre and American Studies courses Its primary aim is to provide students with a broad historical sense of the transformations of American drama from its beginnings to the present making certain that this historical sense is as diverse as possible As the most comprehensive anthology of American drama available for classroom use it is a hope that this anthology will foster in the reader an appreciation of the diversity and vitality of the American experience as expressed through drama Costerus

,1989 Essays in English and American language and literature Studies in American Drama, 1945-present ,1991 Zu: Sam Shepard - "Buried Child" Alexandra Mohr,2002-03-27 Seminar paper from the year 2000 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 2.0 B Humboldt University of Berlin American Culture Studies course The American Dream language English abstract Sam Shepard is known as one of the most accomplished playwrights in the United States he also gained celebrity as an actor in a couple of American movies He has written more than 45 plays different screenplays and has received 11 Obie Awards besides a Golden Palm Award and an Oscar nomination For the 1979 published play Buried Child he received the Pulitzer Prize in the same year This play belongs to Shepard's trilogy of family dramas and is probably the one which marks the change of direction in his career to a more realistic style Critics do recognize a lot of differences compared to older plays which are seen as surrealistic plays or plays which critics categorize as parts of the Theatre of Absurd like for example Fool for Love But reading Buried Child the reader quickly realizes that the play may have started as a realistic play but it turns out to be totally different Step by step Shepard creates a sarcastic play which also could be seen as part of the Theatre of Absurd The play is about a farmers family living near Illinois in the middle of nowhere On the surface the family seems to be normal maybe just a bit frustrated But in the background appears to be a secret which connects the family in a very strange way also every single member of the family tries to keep this secret In a brilliant way Shepard here combines the actual with the fictional When the audience just starts to feel comfortable with the play the plot changes immediately and disappoints their great expectations The following essay is divided into three main parts The first part will give an idea of Shepard's use of autobiographical facts the second focuses on the father son conflict we often find in his plays The last part
The Buried Child will be a direct interpretation of the text
