Los Angeles A Novel:

Blood and Oranges James O. Goldsborough, 2021-05-04 Blood and Oranges The Story of Los Angeles tells the story of how Los Angeles got that way you know THAT way with Hollywood mega churches impossible traffic oil wells on the beaches murders in the foothills and riots in the suburbs You have to go back a ways to understand back to when the water came Twin brothers Willie and Eddie Mull a preacher and a high roller arrive with the water and set out to make their marks They rise with the city and reach the top The brothers have much to answer for especially to their children Maggie and Lizzie Eddie s daughters don t like Eddie s mob ties oil wells or his gambling ship in Santa Monica Bay Cal Mull Willie s son watches his father rise to become the nation s top evangelistic preacher but like his idol St Augustine Willie is weak in the flesh Maggie an aviator wants women to fly in the war but must get past Howard Hughes and find help in Washington Lizzie works for the LA Times wants women to be able to write for more than just the society pages in the paper and does her best to get crime out of the D A s department The second generation of the family reacts to the first but then must face the revolt of its own children

The Road to Los Angeles John Fante, 2010-05-18 I had a lot of jobs in Los Angeles Harbor because our family was poor and my father was dead My first job was ditchdigging a short time after I graduated from high school Every night I couldn t sleep from the pain in my back We were digging an excavation in an empty lot there wasn t any shade the sun came straight from a cloudless sky and I was down in that hole digging with two huskies who dug with a love for it always laughing and telling jokes laughing and smoking bitter tobacco

Los Angeles Peter Moore Smith, 2005 A beautiful neighbor s arrival and her eerie disappearance knocks Angel Veronchek s solitary reclusive life off balance and plunges him into the sinister world of Los Angeles nights a world of secrets that aren t meant to be told and people who aren t meant to be found

To Live and Die in L.A. Gerald Petievich, 1984 Treasury agent Richard Chance that will not stop at nothing to catch a top notch funny money maker Rick Masters Chance s partner agent John Vukovich who comes from a family of police officers torn between backing up his out of control partner and listening to his mentor Veteran Agent Jim Hart

Imagining Los Angeles David Fine, 2016-06-01 The literary image of Los Angeles has evolved since the 1880s from promotional literature that hyped the region as a New Eden to contemporary visions of the city as a perplexing sometimes corrupt even apocalyptic place that reflects all that is wrong with America In Imagining Los Angeles the first literary history of the city in more than fifty years critic David Fine traces the history and mood of the place through the work of writers as diverse as Helen Hunt Jackson Mary Austin Norman Mailer Raymond Chandler Joan Didion Carolyn See and many others His lively and engaging text focuses on the way these writers saw Los Angeles and used the image of the city as an element in their work and on how that image has changed as the city itself became ever larger more complex and more socially and ethnically diverse This is essential reading for anyone interested in the literature and changing image of Southern California

L.A. Breakdown (Deluxe Edition) Lou Mathews, 2023-06-13 A 1999 LOS ANGELES TIMES BEST BOOK DELUXE EDITION

WITH NEVER BEFORE SEEN RECOVERED CHAPTERS Los Angeles 1967 With gleaming detail and blinding precision Lou Mathews freeze frames a hidden corner of L A s outlaw culture in the moments before it becomes extinct The heart of the culture is the drive in where street racers meet to challenge their rivals and place their bets This world comes to life after dark lit by headlights and street lamps a moveable feast of drag races peopled with its own lost generation young men and women who have left high school but have no thoughts of college Drifting from one dead end job to another supplementing their income through thieving doing the occasional stint in prison and reluctantly entering the armed services when there is nothing else left they live and sometimes die for the excitement the danger the money of racing In the world of drag racing fleeting and bittersweet like the end of summer the stakes the stakes grow higher and higher as one by one each player spins out and disappears from the scene Here we meet Vaca crippled in soul and body prefers the armor of his car to a wheelchair The ex con Brody Vaca s driver is the best street racer in town Reinhard a loner who has no one and nothing but the exquisite machines he builds and races Charlie the race organizer who tells the story And Connie who rolls her eyes at the whole parade never without a sarcastic riposte but who can t stay away from the boys and their toys Stunning bleakly beautiful and laugh out loud funny L A Breakdown paints a riveting portrait of 1960s Los Angeles frozen in time yet disintegrating before our eyes with all the reckless speed of romantic era Mathews keeps the reader so firmly focused on horsepower hand rubbed black lacquer paint jobs and custom pinstripes that the small epiphanies that unfold here really do sneak up as surprising and pungent as burning oil Los Angeles Times Leaving Los Angeles Kyle Kouri,2018 Los Angeles in Fiction David M.
