Mulsow,2025-08-19 A compelling alternative account of the history of knowledge from the Renaissance to the Enlightenment Until now the history of knowledge has largely been about formal and documented accumulation concentrating on systems collections academies and institutions The central narrative has been one of advancement refinement and expansion Martin Mulsow tells a different story Knowledge can be lost manuscripts are burned oral learning dies with its bearers new ideas are suppressed by censors Knowledge Lost is a history of efforts from the Renaissance to the Enlightenment to counter such loss It describes how critics of ruling political and religious regimes developed tactics to preserve their views how they buried their ideas in footnotes and allusions how they circulated their tracts and treatises in handwritten copies and how they commissioned younger scholars to spread their writings after death Filled with exciting stories Knowledge Lost follows the trail of precarious knowledge through a series of richly detailed episodes It deals not with the major themes of metaphysics and epistemology but rather with interpretations of the Bible Orientalism and such marginal zones as magic And it focuses not on the usual major thinkers but rather on forgotten or half forgotten members of the knowledge underclass such as Pietro della Vecchia a libertine painter and intellectual Charles C sar Baudelot an antiquarian and numismatist and Johann Christoph Wolf a pastor Hebrew scholar and witness to the persecution of heretics Offering a fascinating new approach to the intellectual history of early modern Europe Knowledge Lost is also an ambitious attempt to rethink the very concept of knowledge
