Culleton, 2016-07-22 Bringing together works by Salvador Espriu Juan Goytisolo Merc Rodoreda Esther Tusquets and Juan Marsa that portray memory as a disorienting narrative enterprise Colleen Culleton argues that the source of this disorientation is the material reality of life in Barcelona in the immediate post Civil War years Barcelona was the object of harsh persecution in the first years of the Franco regime that included the erasure of marks of Catalan identity and cultural history from the urban landscape and made Barcelona a moving target for memory The literature and film she examines show characters struggling to produce narratives of the remembered past that immediately conflict with the dominant version of Spain's historical narrative formulated to legitimize the Civil War Culleton suggests the trope of the laberinto used as an image or device in all five of the works she considers and translated into English as both maze and labyrinth opens up a space that enables readers to take vulnerability to outside interference into account as an inseparable part of remembrance While the narratives all have maze like qualities involving a high level of reader participation and choice the exigencies of the labyrinth with its unicursal demands for patience perseverance and faith always prevail Thus do the Francoist narrative and social structure in the end resurface and reassert themselves over the narrating character's perspective      Accursed Archangels Series Omnibus Books 1-3 Alexia Purdy, 2019-07-31 The Accursed Archangels series is a breakneck urban fantasy adventure which will appeal to readers of angels demons paranormal thrillers reverse harems and supernatural lore Banished from paradise she'll risk it all for one last chance to return Thalia Brennan must find a way back through the gates of Purgatory to be with her family Tasked with killing souls so vile while on Earth this solitary huntress collects their darkness as currency back into Heaven Unfortunately there are some who will stop at nothing to stop her Luckily there s
