Psychoanalytically Informed Play Therapy Jason L. Steadman,2024-03-29

Psychoanalytically Informed Play Therapy Fantasy Exposure Life Narrative Therapy is a structured manual for the execution of FELT an integrative play therapy that marries the analytic relational and psychodynamic aspects of traditional Play Therapy with the scientific rigor and replicability standards of clinical empiricism Jason Steadman s FELT model creates a structured empirically derived means of monitoring children s play using psychoanalytic methods Steadman s method proposes the usage of story stems to structure play to address critical needs in children s psychological development In FELT Steadman teaches readers how to identify problematic play themes and how to respond therapeutically to drive play and general child development toward healthy directions Steadman uses anxiety as the primary example of psychological distress for FELT but also shows how the method can be applied to many other pathologies such as depression and trauma Steadman explains 11 core FELT themes which are then further condensed to three major clinical targets identified in the play of clinically anxious children Each of these is described in detail in the book and therapists are shown not only how to reliably identify themes but how to focus their interventions to move children toward major play based targets Integrating psychoanalytic theory with an emphasis on Object Relations Steadman s FELT program highlights the importance of the self in healthy child development and how play based psychotherapy can be used to help children build stronger healthier selves that can face a wide variety of psychological issues across their lifespan Including comprehensive theoretical underpinnings and thorough clinical examples of FELT at work this volume will allow therapists clinicians and mental health workers to understand childhood play in an empirically based manner and show them how to integrate the key tenets of FELT into their own work to better aid children experiencing anxiety and other mental health concerns

Jeff and Leff; the story of two poor city arabs, and other stories Jeff (fict.name.),1880    The Youth's Companion ,1916 Includes songs for solo voice with piano accompaniment    Ahmed's Revenge Richard Wiley,1998 The people in Richard Wiley s fiction live in the dangerous territory where cultures and worlds collide In Soldiers in Hiding for which Richard Wiley won the PEN Faulkner Award for Best American Fiction in 1987 the protagonist was Teddy Maki a Japanese American whose jazz band was playing in Tokyo at the moment Japan attacked Pearl Harbor Now in his new novel Ahmed s Revenge Wiley introduces us to Nora Grant a young coffee farmer living in Kenya in the 1970s a woman whose predicament is less obvious than Maki s but no less dangerous Nora has disbelievingly stumbled upon her husband Julius engaged in what appears to be ivory smuggling one of the Europeans dirtiest games Before Nora can confront Julius he is killed in accidental circumstances that soon look more like murder Nora investigates her husband s affairs coming across a succession of people whose lives intertwine and intersect her own father living out his retirement in England in apparent innocence Mr Smith who might be a murderer Mr N Chele who might be a smuggler Miro the opera singer Detective Mubia a policeman of divided loyalties and Ahmed a massive African elephant whose remains are preserved at the National Museum in Nairobi and in whose name revenge must be sought Richard Wiley is a craftsman His eclectic cast of misfits plays out an engaging story in a superbly wrought atmosphere of post colonial tension and drama
