Los Mayas:

The Organization of Agricultural Production at a Classic Maya Center Rodrigo Liendo Stuardo, 2002 A detailed analysis of the economic foundations of the prehispanic Maya city of Palenque Full information on extensive ridged field systems in Palenque s immediate hinterland and on the rural settlement associated with them The study concludes that initially the construction and use of these ridged fields systems was strongly controlled and managed by elites residing in the city itself Later in the sequence there is a substantial decrease in central administrative control Detailed data are available electronically Complete text in English and Spanish El Fin Del Mundo Maya Y la Ex-República de YucatÁN Rafael Yates Sosa, 2012-03 Actualmente hay varias de estas calaveras exhibi ndose en las vitrinas de distintos museos del mundo y ya han sido descubiertas por lo menos ocho de las trece Est n en distintas manos y cada una de ellas ha sido bautizada con un nombre propio seg n la especialista en la materia Ellie Crystal El misterio de las calaveras es enriquecido tambi n por una leyenda que se remontar a a los mayas Mesoamerican Narratives at the British Museum Laura Ann Osorio Sunnucks, Omar Aguilar Sánchez, Iyaxel Ixkan Cojtí Ren, Alejandro José Garay Herrera, Osiris Sinuhé González Romero, Maarten E.R.G.N. Jansen, Raul Macuil Martínez, Romelia Mó Isém, Gabina Aurora Pérez Jiménez, 2025-08-18 This bilingual book is the outcome of a research project undertaken between the Santo Domingo Centre of Excellence for Latin American Research at the British Museum and a group of Indigenous and non Indigenous archaeologists and activists from Mexico and Guatemala The chapters include new interpretations of some written narratives in the Mesoamerican collection at the British Museum as well as critical reflections on the politics of Indigenous participation in museum projects and collection research The book includes new scholarly interpretations of the Tonindeye Codex the Xiuhpohualli of Tenochtitlan and the Yaxchilan lintels and seeking to read these Mesoamerican narratives in an embodied way it hopes to foster temporal imagination in the museum It also discusses Indigenous epistemologies while focusing on the relevance of mobilising this work strategically outside of the museum among descendant communities In this way researchers and visitors might interrogate their political and emotional positions towards colonial collections The White Indians of Mexican Cinema Mónica García Blizzard, 2022-04-01 The White Indians of Mexican Cinema theorizes the development of a unique form of racial masquerade the representation of Whiteness as Indigeneity during the Golden Age of Mexican cinema from the 1930s to the 1950s Adopting a broad decolonial perspective while remaining grounded in the history of local racial categories M nica Garc a Blizzard argues that this trope works to reconcile two divergent discourses about race in postrevolutionary Mexico the government sponsored celebration of Indigeneity and mestizaje or the process of interracial and intercultural mixing on the one hand and the idealization of Whiteness on the other Close readings of twenty films and primary source material illustrate how Mexican cinema has mediated race especially in relation to gender in ways that project national specificity but also reproduce racist tendencies with respect to beauty desire and protagonism that survive to this day This sweeping survey illuminates how Golden Age films produced diverse even contradictory messages about the place of Indigeneity in the national culture This book is freely available in an open access edition thanks to TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem a collaboration of the Association of American Universities the Association of University Presses and the Association of Research Libraries and the generous support of Emory University and the Andrew W Mellon Foundation Learn more at the TOME website available at <https://www.openmonographs.org> It can also be found in the SUNY Open Access Repository at <http://hdl.handle.net/20.500.12648/7153>

The Maya Forest Waterlands Hanna Laako,Edith Kauffer,2025-02-12 This book examines the entanglements and blurred edges of nature conservation and geopolitical relations in the borderlands of the trinational Maya Forest Maya Forest is an umbrella term for transboundary conservation developed by scientists and conservationists in the 1990s to protect the threatened rainforest in the borderlands of Mexico Belize and Guatemala Currently the Maya Forest is a biodiversity hotspot composed of a network of protected areas and heritage sites However issues related to water land and forests have often been treated as separate political units and not as part of the same history Written by two authors with decades of hands on experience in this region this book sheds light on the complex dynamics by which conservation and natural resource management geopolitically shape borderlands such as the Maya Forest The book introduces the novel concept of forest waterlands as borderlands and fluid edges which are now subject to concern by conservationists These are entangled spaces in which conservation peoples and politics interact connect and disconnect with the nexus of waters forests and lands The book sheds light on the building and mapping of the Maya Forest ecoregion with particular attention to water as an often neglected but unifying element It showcases how the Maya Forest is a distinct region characterized by transformations entangled with the Maya trails of biological stations the shared history of chicleros chewing gum hunters fluid international rivers and transboundary basins and various geopolitical discrepancies It offers a contemporary glimpse into the Maya Forest s intertwined bio and geopolitics which urge us to rethink borders and boundaries This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of nature conservation global environmental politics geopolitics borderlands international relations and natural resource management
