Slopovers Stephen J. Pyne, 2019-04-02 America is not simply a federation of states but a confederation of regions Some have always held national attention some just for a time Slopovers examines three regions that once dominated the national narrative and may now be returning to prominence The Mid American oak woodlands were the scene of vigorous settlement in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries and thus the scene of changing fire practices The debate over the origin of the prairies by climate or fire foreshadowed the more recent debate about fire in oak and hickory hardwoods In both cases today's thinking points to the critical role of fire The Pacific Northwest was the great pivot between laissez faire logging and state sponsored conservation and the fires that would accompany each Then fire faded as an environmental issue But it has returned over the past decade like an avenging angel forcing the region to again consider the defining dialectic between axe and flame And Alaska Alaska is different as everyone says It came late to wildland fire protection then managed an extraordinary transfiguration into the most successful American region to restore something like the historic fire regime But Alaska is also a petrostate and climate change may be making it the vanguard of what the Anthropocene will mean for American fire overall Slopovers collates surveys of these three regions into the national narrative With a unique mixture of journalism history and literary imagination renowned fire expert Stephen J Pyne shows how culture and nature fire from nature and fire from people interact to shape our world with three case studies in public policy and the challenging questions they pose about the future we will share with fire

The Strip Stefan Al, 2017-03-03 The transformations of the Strip from the fake Wild West to neon signs twenty stories high to starchitecture and how they mirror America itself The Las Vegas Strip has impersonated the Wild West with saloon doors and wagon wheels it has decked itself out in midcentury modern sleekness It has illuminated itself with twenty story high neon signs then junked them After that came Disney like theme parks featuring castles and pirates followed by replicas of Venetian canals New York skyscrapers and the Eiffel Tower It might be noted that forty two million people visited Las Vegas in 2015 ten million more than visited the real Paris More recently the Strip decided to get classy with casinos designed by famous architects and zillion dollar collections of art Las Vegas became the implosion capital of the world as developers driven by competition got rid of the old to make way for the new offering a non metaphorical definition of creative destruction In The Strip Stefan Al examines the many transformations of the Las Vegas Strip arguing that they mirror transformations in America itself The Strip is not as popularly supposed a display of architectural freaks but representative of architectural trends and a record of social cultural and economic change Al tells two parallel stories He describes the feverish competition of Las Vegas developers to build the snazziest most tourist grabbing casinos and resorts with a cast of characters including the mobster Bugsy Siegel the eccentric billionaire Howard Hughes and the would be political kingmaker Sheldon Adelson And he views the Strip in a larger social context showing that it has not only reflected trends but also magnified them and sometimes even initiated them Generously illustrated with stunning color images throughout The Strip traces the many metamorphoses of a city that offers a vivid projection of the American dream     Machinery Fred Herbert Colvin,Lester Gray French,1935     My Letters to the Church Genesis McKenzie,2008-04 McKenzie provides an analysis of anti Semitism in Christian doctrines from a theological perspective and shows how to destroy the leaven of anti Semitism in Christian doctrine once and for all     The Lost Frontier Mark Asquith,2014-06-19 The success of The Shipping News and the film of Brokeback Mountain brought Proulx international recognition but their success merely confirms what literary critics have known for some time Proulx is one of the most provocative and stylistically innovative writers in America today She is at her best in the short story format and the best of these are to be found in her Wyoming trilogy in which she turns her eye on America s West both past and present Yet despite the vast amount of print expended reviewing her books there has been nothing published on the Wyoming Stories There is appetite for such a work the plethora of critical work on McCarthy s Border Trilogy indicates that the reinvention of the West is a subject for serious academic study Provided by publisher     Ecritage Michael A. This work offers a much needed literary biography and critical commentary on Merril's groundbreaking science fiction anthologies, reviews, memoir, and other endeavors. Contested themes of Native American removal, water transfers, and wartime internment are interwoven with remembrances of the valley's multicultural communities, its cattle ranching and agriculture, and its Western filmmaking, railroad, and mining enterprises. Together, author and narrators create an accessible and richly textured work of history, memory, and place. The Lyceumite and Talent, 1908 Tharon of Lost Valley Vingie Eve Roe, 1919 Frontiers Past and Future Carl Abbott, 2006 Abbott offers a fruitful new way to read science fiction, one that also greatly enriches our understanding of western history and its impact on our collective imagination.
