Lost Identity:

Lost Identity Simon Geschwindt, 2014 Marco Meyer's wife Suzanna has left him for fellow journalist Karl Ngwenya. After Ngwenya's death, Marco determined to outdo Ngwenya, takes over his investigation into exports of fake drugs from Amsterdam to African countries. From the outset, Marco finds himself hopelessly out of his depth, isolated in east Africa with no one to trust. Eventually stripped of his dignity and his identity, Marco struggles to maintain his grip on the one hope that sustains him, Suzanna. This exciting and moving story follows the journalist's struggle with love, betrayal, murder, and his own identity. It was written in 1983 under the title Een Welkome Dood before the advent of the Internet, mobile phone, and post 9/11 tightening of international security. It was produced by the author in English in 2008 under the title Lost Identity. The issue of exports of substandard and counterfeit chemicals and drugs to developing countries remains as current as when the novel was first written.

The House of Lost Identity Donald Corley, 2008-02-01 Fantasy tales and drawings by Donald Corley with an introduction by James Branch Cabell. The House of Lost Identity Donald Corley, 1927 The House of Lost Identity Donald Corley, 1927 Index to Short Stories, 1929 Lost Identity Margaret Briggs, 1968 Tragedy in the Making Mzwandile P. Ntsontsa, 2012-07-27 The book is entitled Tragedy In The Making. It's written after he, the author, experienced suffering, pain, struggle, and poverty for a very long time in his life because of wrong beliefs he subscribed to, wrong decisions and choices he has made. The truth is that people are overwhelmed by what they are going through in their daily living. People are trying so hard to make life work, and no matter how hard they try, they keep on failing. Because they are living their lives outside the parameters of God's will for their lives, Tragedy in the Making is trying to live the life we have designed for ourselves versus failing to live the life that God has designed for us. When you keep doing things in your own way instead of God's way, you won't be able to manage your life; that is a promise. The source of the suffering in this book is the result of mankind not comprehending the purpose and the plan of God for creating them. When I observe and look around in the world today, I see a lot of ongoing suffering, pain, struggle, and poverty in God's people as well. I believe you can agree with me when I say some of the things we see daily in this world are heartbreaking. Most leaders are responsible for the suffering and struggle that we see in people's lives. Whether be the heads of states, heads of institutions, or heads of families. Somehow we are where we are today because someone has led us there. The solution in your suffering, sorrow, pain, and struggle can only be found in one man only, and his name is Jesus Christ. He came to reconcile us with the Father. He came to restore us into our original state and mend a broken relationship between us and God, our creator.

Disha is a timid girl brought up by her parents as a homely, quiet girl trained to be seen rather than heard. She marries Giri, a man her parents choose for her. She goes on to be the ideal Indian wife, barely questioning or rebelling and catering to the needs of her husband and an insecure mother-in-law. Despite her constant inner conflict arising out of introspection, observation, and education, she remains largely silent and unheard in her marriage, as she was during her childhood. Taunted and belittled by them, her individuality slowly disappears, at least to the viewer's eye. Will she ever emerge out of the shadows? The Lost Identity is a must-read for teenagers and parents reflecting on untold and little-understood problems of millions of Indian girls through the protagonist Disha. The Law of Psychic Phenomena Thomson Jay Hudson, 1908 Lost Identity Frank Dragotto, Jr., 2009-09
