Say,1992-04-01 A young boy and his father become closer friends during a camping trip in the mountains The Crystal Ball: A Mystery Story for Girls Roy Judson Snell,2020-09-28 Florence Huyler read the number on the door She wondered at the lack of light from within the glass of the door was like a slab of ebony No one here she murmured Just my luck For all that she put out a hand to grasp the knob In a city office building ten stories up one does not knock Florence did not so much as allow the yielding door to make a sound She turned the knob as one imagines a robber might turn the dial of a safe slowly silently Why did she do this Could she have answered this question Probably not Certainly she was not spying on the occupants of that room at least not yet Perhaps that was the way she always opened a door We all have our ways of doing things Some of us seize a door knob give it a quick turn a yank and there we are And some like Florence move with the slyness and softness of a cat It is their nature One thing is sure once the door had yielded to her touch and she had ushered herself into the semi darkness that was beyond she was glad of that sly silence for something quite mysterious was going on beyond that door She found herself in a place of all but complete darkness Only before her where a pair of heavy drapes parted was there a narrow slit of eery blue light There was no need of tiptoeing as she moved toward that long line of light Her sturdy street shoes sank deep in something she knew must be a rich Oriental rug In such a building she thought with increasing surprise The building was old might at any time be wrecked to make parking space for cars The elevator as she came up had swayed and teetered like a canary bird s cage on a coiled spring A MILLION MILES AND COUNTING: A Story Behind Every Mile Gloria Jean Hansen,2023-02-09 I love driving I have driven since I was six and learned on the old Farmall tractor from childhood days in rural Northern Ontario We never had a car growing up I swore when I grew up I would drive somewhere every day My happiest place is behind the wheel Home nursing gave me that perk and every patient I visited turned out another story names never used and situations slightly changed to assure privacy for participants My mother lived a thousand miles across the province from us so in order to ensure my little ones knew their grandmother well we often dropped everything and headed for Grandma s Each of those road trips was a story in itself Something of note would happen every time we set out on such a journey For instance my daughter and I were at one time both nursing new babies and THAT is yet another book Between the uprooted schedule we both maintained for our babies we did not take into consideration that our nerves would get the best of us I recall my daughter saying she was headed for the river bank halfway to our destination and don t bother coming to get her I could keep both babes since it was obvious she knew nothing about mothering I swear I don t recall questioning her parenting but to this day she claims I did Loudly Could have been something to do with the fact my last baby was born when I was 45 not much left in the patience locker I am an obsessive fisherman My fishing rod is always in the trunk I would travel out of my way for one little cast to see if fish are biting at a nearby lakeshore or I would jump into my boat and be gone for hours sometimes days after the big catch Those lake trips added many miles to my log of distance and stories I also play music in a bluegrass band with my daughter We log many many miles going to festivals practices and local and regional musical events I have always had a rather large vehicle to contain in the early years kids and all their quilts and cuddle toys and sippy cups and anything else they snuck on board Later years I had to carry medical supplies briefcases office supplies and the like for work then instruments and sound equipment for the festival circuit and a front seat filled with coffee maker and a sizeable cooler for the many meals I had to consume while driving At all times I carried a clipboard and attached pen to record the noteworthy things that happened on my various trips Those clipboards filled quickly In later years it was a laptop and or tablet and cell phone gracing my passenger seat Since my nursing career began in the early seventies and motherhood as well and musician matters all my life plus the fishing and the snowmachine miles you can imagine I had ample grist for this Million Miles mill The book is filled with my life on the road a memoir

Reading Erskine Caldwell Robert L. McDonald, 2006-01-24 Erskine Caldwell has been compared to literary giants like Faulkner and Hemingway yet he has also been reviled as peddler of pop trash Was he a genius or just a shooting star whose brilliance faded long before he stopped writing Caldwell began his career in the late 1920s and gained fame for revealing the gritty backwoods South in novels such as his seminal Tobacco Road He wrote prolifically sometimes as much as a book a year As the editor of this book maintains perhaps anyone who wrote so much would inevitably stumble These 12 essays explore a variety of issues They discuss Caldwell as humorist social commentator modernist and revolutionary novelist They examine his themes and tropes political images social injustice the environment ideological struggles and his use of artistic devices short stories cubist strategies repetition A generous bibliography includes not only books on Caldwell but also chapters and forewords journal articles essays news items and obituaries The reader is encouraged to look at Caldwell with fresh eyes to press beyond his controversial image and to compare his works especially his early ones to those of any of the top names in literature
