of Xuanxue authors like Wang Bi Cheng read the Daode jing in light of Daoist religion Cheng presents Laozi the presumed author of the Daode jing as a bodhisattva like sage and savior who wrote the Daode jing to compassionately guide human beings to salvation Salvation is interpreted as a metaphysical form of immortality reached by overcoming the dichotomy of being and non being and thus also life and death Cheng s philosophical outlook ties together the ancient text of the Daode jing and contemporary developments in Daoist thought which occurred under the influence of an intense interaction with Buddhist ideas The commentary is a vivid testimony of the integration of Buddhist thought into an exegesis of the ancient classic of the Daode jing and thereby also into Chinese philosophy Friederike Assandri frames this new translation with an extensive introduction providing crucial context for a new reading of the Daode jing It includes a biography of Cheng Xuanyang a discussion of the historical and political context of Daoism in early medieval China in the capital Chang an and a discussion of Cheng s philosophy in relation to the interaction of Daoism and Buddhism This commentary is essential reading for students and scholars interested in the history of Chinese philosophy Daoist thought and the reception of Buddhism in China
