Lost Worlds Of 2001:

The Lost Worlds of 2001 Arthur Charles Clarke,1979 The Lost Worlds of 2001 Arthur C. Clarke,1972-01-31

Arthur C. Clarke Gary Westfahl,2018-06-14 Already renowned for his science fiction and scientific nonfiction Arthur C Clarke became the world s most famous science fiction writer after the success of 2001 A Space Odyssey He then produced novels like Rendezvous with Rama and The Fountains of Paradise that many regard as his finest works Gary Westfahl closely examines Clarke s remarkable career ranging from his forgotten juvenilia to the passages he completed for a final novel The Last Theorem As Westfahl explains Clarke s science fiction offered original perspectives on subjects like new inventions space travel humanity s destiny alien encounters the undersea world and religion While not inclined to mysticism Clarke necessarily employed mystical language to describe the fantastic achievements of advanced aliens and future humans Westfahl also contradicts the common perception that Clarke s characters were bland and underdeveloped arguing that these reticent solitary individuals who avoid conventional relationships represent his most significant prediction of the future as they embody the increasingly common lifestyle of people in the twenty first century Alien Sex Gerard

Loughlin,2008-04-15 Gerard Loughlin is one of the leading theologians working at the interface between religion and contemporary culture In this exceptional work he uses cinema and the films it shows to think about the church and the visions of desire it displays Discusses various films including the Alien quartet Christopher Nolan s Memento Stanley Kubrick s 2001 A Space Odyssey and A Clockwork Orange Nicolas Roeg s The Man Who Fell to Earth and Derek Jarman s The Garden Draws on a wide range of authors both ancient and modern religious and secular from Plato to Levinas from Karl Barth and Hans Urs von Balthasar to Andr Bazin and Leo Bersani Uses cinema to think about the church as an ecclesiacinema and films to think about sexual desire as erotic dispossession as a way into the life of God Written from a radically orthodox Christian perspective at once both Catholic and critical Arthur C. Clarke David N. Samuelson,1984 The Making of 2001: A Space Odyssey Stephanie Schwam,2010-07-21 If 2001 has stirred your emotions your subconscious your mythological yearnings then it has succeeded Stanley Kubrick Stanley Kubrick s extraordinary movie 2001 A Space Odyssey was released in 1969 The critics initially disliked it but the public loved it And eventually the film took its rightful place as one of the most innovative brilliant and pivotal works of modern cinema The Making of 2001 A Space Odyssey consists of testimony from Kubrick s collaborators and commentary from critics and historians This is the most complete book on the film to date from Stanley Kubrick s first meeting with screenwriter Arthur C Clarke to Kubrick s exhaustive research to the actual shooting and release of the movie Arthur C. Clarke Joseph D. Olander,Martin Harry Greenberg,1977 An analysis of this science fiction writer s work that ends in the mid 1970s How to Read a Film James Monaco,1981 Now thoroughly revised and updated the book discusses recent breakthroughs in media technology including such exciting advances as video discs and cassettes two way television satellites cable and much more A Companion to Science Fiction David Seed,2008-04-15 A

The Loves of the Artists Jonathan Jones, 2013-05-23 A sweeping epic history of the Renaissance artists seen through the lens of something that perhaps occupied their thoughts and influenced their art: the most sex. Taking Donatello's provocative reinvention of the nude as his starting point, Jonathan shows how the story of the Renaissance is the story of a sexual revolution. The great artists of the 15th and 16th century were not just visionaries but lovers. Jonathan argues that the famous nudes of Michelangelo and Titian are not abstract images of ideal beauty but erotic expressions of love and desire, and that in order to understand the Renaissance we have to understand the sex lives of the men and women who defined it: men like Raphael who obsessively painted his lover La Fornarina in the nude; Michelangelo who made beautiful drawings of naked male bodies to present to the young man he adored; and Rembrandt whose bedroom portraits of Hendrickje Stoffels are the frankest expressions of love anywhere in art. Sweeping from its origins in Florence in the mid 15th century to its culmination in the work of Rubens and Rembrandt in the 17th, The Loves of the Artists shows that the Renaissance invented eroticism as we know it, and that the new ways of thinking about sex it engendered are crucial to understanding not only art but European culture as a whole.
