Manitoba Stories:

Ghost Stories of Manitoba Barbara Smith, 1998 Chilling stories from all over Manitoba will keep you checking under the bed behind closet doors and in the basement. The stories are about haunted houses, long dead relatives and poltergeists in theatres, hotels and hospitals. Murder and tragedy are woven together with mystery and misfortune in these tales of the paranormal. Includes Winnipeg's Walker Theatre, the Virgin Mary at Cross Lake Hotel, Fort Garry, St. John's Anglican Cathedral and more. The Story of Manitoba Frank Howard Schofield, 1913 This collection of biographies of Manitobans was compiled by the S. J. Clarke Publishing Company and published in Winnipeg in 1913. Most of those featured in the book were living at that time so no information on death dates were provided. Crime Stories Bill Redekop, 2004 It Happened in Manitoba Don Aiken, 2004 Born of author Don Aiken's love of local history and the more than 160 columns he wrote for the Heritage Highlights feature of the Winnipeg Real Estate News. It Happened in Manitoba presents a collection of entertaining glimpses into Manitoba's past. The stories in this book span almost four centuries from the early 1600s to the mid 1900s and are written in an entertaining style that compels characters and events to jump off the page and into our imaginations. Learn about the rich historical diversity and defining moments that have shaped Manitoba through Aiken's thoughtful presentation of a wide range of subjects including The strike to end all strikes, The Graveyard of Daily Newspapers, How Winnipeggers used to frolic, the birth of Manitoba's Golden Boy, Why Winnipeg was once described as the wickedest city in the country, A Manitoba ghost town and The Winnipeg theatre tradition. Tales of epic battles, floods and arctic survival also grace the pages of this book as do revealing biographies of larger than life Manitoba characters among them Chief Peguis, Pierre the Rhymer and the great Metis leader Cuthbert Grant.

Haunted Manitoba Matthew Komus, 2020-01-13 Discover the history of Manitoba sites through the stories of the ghosts that haunt them. Manitoba may seem like a quiet province but its prairies teem with paranormal activity. A ghostly groundskeeper still does his rounds at the Delta Marsh Field Station, strange noises and apparitions of children in 19th century clothing have been reported at Lower Fort Garry and Mrs. Kennedy still welcomes guests to Captain Kennedy's House just as she did when her home was built in 1866. Haunted Manitoba shares eerie stories from all corners of the province and places them in the context of Manitoba's rich history. Manitoba Stories

Joan Parr, 1981 My (Mostly) Manitoba Stories Tom Goodman, 2021-09-07 With its racial, ethnic and language diversity, Manitoba is in many respects the most Canadian of our Canadian provinces. My Mostly Manitoba Stories is a collection of short stories mostly set in Manitoba and spanning a timeline from the early eighteen hundreds to the present. Politicians, lawyers and persons of various ethnicities and backgrounds all become subjects in this unique collection. A flamboyant lawyer and racehorse owner defends his trainer against an allegation of cheating. The life of a Winnipeg schoolteacher is disrupted when he inherits a powder horn recovered after the Battle of Seven Oaks. A Mennonite politician enjoys a successful career but ultimately betrays the people who love him. An elderly Icelandic grandmother reveals the harsh reality of war to her grandson With stories of family heritage both embraced and disowned political shenanigans and history viewed through an unlikely lens My Mostly Manitoba Stories provides an intriguing yet disconcertingly familiar picture of Manitoba The Story of Manitoba Frank Howard Schofield,1913 This collection of biographies of Manitobans was compiled by the S J Clarke Publishing Company and published in Winnipeg in 1913 Most of those featured in the book were living at that time so no information on death dates were provided

The Story Behind Manitoba Names Ted Stone,2006 Get to know Manitoba with the stories of over 500 names ranging from the humorous to the historic Communities included are particularly rich with an array of whimsical descriptive historical and aboriginal names Perhaps because of our frontier heritage towns and cities in North America come named after all manner of unlikely people places and things and they come in dozens of languages all of which add interest and color to the stories behind the names Manitoba s names stand with the best From a town named after a baking powder can to the village of Dropmore whose town fathers couldn t decide on a name until they d had a drop more from a shared bottle towns in Manitoba have been named after everything from bacon to ducks One village was named after a local species of tree by local residents who only discovered later that they had been mistaken about just what kind of tree they had growing in the town Other Manitoba communities have been named after early residents prominent people local incidents former homes in other places and Indian legends No matter if you re from Manitoba or someplace far away the stories behind the names on Manitoba s map make for stories that seem hilariously unbelievable but that really are true They also help illuminate the history and culture of Western Canada

Every Stone a Story Charles Brawn,Dale Brawn,2008 Every Stone a Story is a collection of stories gleaned from Manitoba s buried history Each is illustrated with a photograph of a headstone and each describes the life death and or experiences of someone buried in a particular cemetery The stories are often about the famous or infamous but equally often they are about people little known outside their communities but who have done something extraordinary The stories are grouped according to their topics politicians artists andsportsmen and women crimes and scandals accidents and disasters and pioneers

Ice sculpted the land before nomadic first people pressed trails across it. Southern First Nations dug into the earth to grow corn and potatoes while those in the north mined it for quartz used in arrowheads. Fur traders arrived expanding on Indigenous trading networks and shaping new ones. Then came settlers who chiselled the terrain with villages towns and cities. They levelled contours to straighten roads which started out as wagon sculpted dirt trails and became multi lane highways. They filled in creeks and streams to form foundations for buildings that evolved from modest wooden boxes to grand stone monuments of progress and prosperity. But there is failure and suffering etched into the history too. In Winnipeg slums emerged as the city's population boomed. There were more workers than jobs and the pay was paltry. Immigrants and First Nations were treated as second class shunted to the fringes. Rebellions and strikes political scandals and natural disasters occurred as the people molded Manitoba. That past has been thoroughly chronicled yet within it are lesser known stories of people places and events. In The Lesser Known Darren Bernhardt shares odd tales lost in time such as The Tin Can Cathedral the first independent Ukrainian church in North America the jail cell hidden beneath a Winnipeg theatre the bear pit of Confusion Corner gardening competitions between fur trading forts and more. Once deemed important enough to be documented these stories are now buried. It's time to carve away at them once again The Story of the Dominion John Castell Hopkins, 1901 Made in Manitoba Bill Redekop, 2011 Stories originally published in the Winnipeg free press The Best Short Stories of 1919 Edward Joseph Harrington O'Brien, 1920
