Manliness Civilization:

Manliness & Civilization Gail Bederman, 2024-05-31 When former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries came out of retirement on the fourth of July 1910 to fight current black heavyweight champion Jack Johnson in Reno Nevada he boasted that he was doing it for the sole purpose of proving that a white man is better than a negro Jeffries though was trounced Whites everywhere rioted The furor Gail Bederman demonstrates was part of two fundamental and volatile national obsessions manhood and racial dominance In turn of the century America cultural ideals of manhood changed profoundly as Victorian notions of self restrained moral manliness were challenged by ideals of an aggressive overtly sexualized masculinity Bederman traces this shift in values and shows how it brought together two seemingly contradictory ideals the unfettered virility of racially primitive men and the refined superiority of civilized white men Focusing on the lives and works of four very different Americans Theodore Roosevelt educator G Stanley Hall Ida B Wells and Charlotte Perkins Gilman she illuminates the ideological cultural and social interests these ideals came to serve Manliness and Civilization Gail Bederman, 1995-06-15 When former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries came out of retirement on the fourth of July 1910 to fight current black heavyweight champion Jack Johnson in Reno Nevada he boasted that he was doing it for the sole purpose of proving that a white man is better than a negro Jeffries though was trounced Whites everywhere rioted The furor Gail Bederman demonstrates was part of two fundamental and volatile national obsessions manhood and racial dominance In turn of the century America cultural ideals of manhood changed profoundly as Victorian notions of self restrained moral manliness were challenged by ideals of an aggressive overtly sexualized masculinity Bederman traces this shift in values and shows how it brought together two seemingly contradictory ideals the unfettered virility of racially primitive men and the refined superiority of civilized white men Focusing on the lives and works of four very different Americans Theodore Roosevelt educator G Stanley Hall Ida B Wells and Charlotte Perkins Gilman she illuminates the ideological cultural and social interests these ideals came to serve Manliness & Civilization Gail Bederman, 1995 Manliness & Civilization Gail Bederman, 2016 Masculinity and the Making of American Judaism Sarah Imhoff, 2017-03-13 An examination of how early twentieth century American Jewish men experienced manhood and presented their masculinity to others How did American Jewish men experience manhood and how did they present their masculinity to others In this distinctive book Sarah Imhoff shows that the project of shaping American Jewish manhood was not just one of assimilation or exclusion Jewish manhood was neither a mirror of normative American manhood nor its negative effeminate opposite Imhoff demonstrates how early twentieth century Jews constructed a gentler less aggressive manhood drawn partly from the American pioneer spirit and immigration experience but also from Hollywood and the YMCA which required intense cultivation of a muscled male physique She contends that these models helped Jews articulate the value of an acculturated American Judaism Tapping into a rich historical literature to reveal how Jews looked at masculinity differently than Protestants or other religious groups

Imhoff illuminates the particular experience of American Jewish men There is so much literature and very good scholarship on Judaism and gender but the majority of that literature reflects an interest in women A hearty thank you to Sarah Imhoff for writing the other half of the story and for doing it so elegantly Claire Elise Katz author of Levinas and the Crisis of Humanism Invariably lucid and engaging Sarah Imhoff provides a secure foundation for how religion shaped American masculinity and how masculinity shaped American Judaism in the early twentieth century Judith Gerson author of By Thanksgiving We Were Americans German Jewish Refugees and Holocaust Memory We Specialize in the Wholly Impossible Darlene Clark Hine, Wilma King, Linda Reed, 1995-04 Essays by 30 authors attempt to reclaim and to create heightened awareness about individuals contributions and struggles that have made African American women s survival and progress possible

Mythic Frontiers Daniel R. Maher, 2019-03-04 Maher explores the development of the Frontier Complex as he deconstructs the frontier myth in the context of manifest destiny American exceptionalism and white male privilege A very significant contribution to our understanding of how and why heritage sites reinforce privilege Frederick H Smith author of The Archaeology of Alcohol and Drinking Peels back the layer of dime westerns and True Grit films to show how their mythologies are made material You ll never experience a heritage site the same way again Christine Bold author of The Frontier Club Popular Westerns and Cultural Power 1880-1924 The history of the Wild West has long been fictionalized in novels films and television shows Catering to these popular representations towns across America have created tourist sites connecting such tales with historical monuments Yet these attractions stray from known histories in favor of the embellished past visitors expect to see and serve to craft a cultural memory that reinforces contemporary ideologies In Mythic Frontiers Daniel Maher illustrates how aggrandized versions of the past especially those of the American frontier have been used to turn a profit These imagined historical sites have effectively silenced the violent oppressive colonizing forces of manifest destiny and elevated principal architects of it to mythic heights Examining the frontier complex in Fort Smith Arkansas where visitors are greeted at a restored brothel and the reconstructed courtroom and gallows of Hanging Judge Isaac Parker feature prominently Maher warns that creating a popular tourist narrative and disconnecting cultural heritage tourism from history minimizes the devastating consequences of imperialism racism and sexism and relegitimizes the privilege bestowed upon white men Gender, Embodiment, and the History of the Scholarly Persona Kirsti Niskanen, Michael J.
