Medicina familiar UC Blanca Peñaloza, Paulina Rojas, 2024-05-13 Un grupo de estudiantes de medicina de la Universidad Católica a inicios de los años noventa con el retorno de la democracia en Chile sueña con contribuir a una medicina de calidad que pueda servir a las comunidades más vulnerables lejos de las tecnologías y los hospitales en la humildad de la atención primaria de salud. Este libro relata cómo ese anhelo de los internos apoyados por valientes y visionarios profesores y autoridades de la Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile y luego por autoridades del Ministerio de Salud se transforma en el programa de formación de médicos familiares más grande del país con el aporte de personas, comunidades, instituciones públicas y privadas, un proyecto que logra instalar la atención primaria como un área relevante de conocimiento académico en aquella casa de estudios y formar médicos de excelencia especializados en el cuidado de las personas en su contexto: la familia y la comunidad. Este relato busca reflexionar y recoger las experiencias y aprendizajes de 30 años de esta historia para aprender del camino recorrido e inspirar a otros tratando de ser un aporte para una mejor atención primaria en nuestro país y demostrar que a veces los sueños se hacen realidad.
