Manet And His Critics:

Manet and His Critics George Heard Hamilton, 1969 Manet and his Critics is a closely documented case study of the relationship of the artist to society. Mr Hamilton draws on contemporary newspapers, periodicals, letters and critical essays to examine the critical tempest that Manet's paintings created in his time. He follows the evolution of Manet's style, his struggles to have his work accepted and the history of both the abuse and praise he received. Some of the criticism was bitter and some ridiculous; one critic wrote, 'Manet who ought not to have forgotten the panic caused by his black cat in Olympia has borrowed a parrot from his friend Courbet and placed it on a perch beside a young lady in a pink dressing gown.' These realists are capable of anything; some knowledgeable and some not. Mr Hamilton's book assesses the range of these reactions and the result is an illuminating study of the relation of Manet's painting and its principles to the contemporary practices of 19th century French art.

Levine, 1976 Originally presented as the author's thesis, Harvard 1974 ARTnews, 1954 The Art Criticism of Théophile Gautier Michael Clifford Spencer, 1969 Cézanne, Murder, and Modern Life Andrzej Dombrowski, 2013 Cézanne, Murder and Modern Life changes the way we think about and see Cézanne's entire oeuvre.

Dombrowski's arguments are convincing and bold, especially on the theme of murder as a vehicle for representation. Modern Olympia has never before been so satisfactorily analyzed. Susan Sidlauskas, Rutgers University author of Cézanne's Other: The Portraits of Hortense. Exciting and intelligent, Cézanne, Murder and Modern Life will be important for modernists and essential for scholars of Cézanne's early Impressionism and painting in the 1860s. Dombrowski shows us a Cézanne we did not know.

David Carrier, 1998 Renoir: An Intimate Biography Barbara Ehrlich White, 2017-11-07 A major new biography of this enduringly popular artist by the world's foremost scholar of his life and work. Expertly researched and beautifully written by the world's leading authority on Auguste Renoir's life and work, Renoir fully reveals this most intriguing of Impressionist artists. The narrative is interspersed with more than 1 100 extracts from letters by and about Renoir, 452 of which come from unpublished letters. Renoir became hugely popular despite great obstacles: thirty years of poverty followed by thirty years of progressive paralysis of his fingers. Despite these hardships, much of his work is optimistic, even joyful. Close friends who contributed money, contacts and companionship enabled him to overcome these challenges to create more than 4 000 paintings. Renoir had intimate relationships with fellow artists Caillebotte, Cézanne, Monet and Morisot, with his dealers Durand, Ruel, Bernheim and Vollard, and with his models Lise, Aline, Gabrielle and Désirée. Barbara Ehrlich White's lifetime of research informs this fascinating biography that challenges common misconceptions surrounding Renoir's reputation. Since 1961 White has studied more than 3 000 letters relating to Renoir and gained unique insight into his personality and character. Renoir provides an unparalleled and intimate portrait of this complex artist through images of his own iconic paintings, his own words and the words of his contemporaries. Barbara White is a biographer of courage, seriousness and unrelenting honesty. She has read and dissected about 3 000 letters about Renoir written by him, his friends, his family as well as the newspapers of the day. Practically every member of the Renoir family has entrusted their personal documents to her. A pledge of trust totally deserved. Whenever I am asked a question about Auguste, I write to Barbara to ask her opinion or call on her knowledge since she has become an indisputable reference for me. She is always careful and verifies facts and contexts by every route possible. The Renoir family and Auguste himself are very lucky that Barbara is so passionate about her subject and I feel personally lucky to know her. I thank her from the bottom of my heart for this work of a lifetime, a magnificent success. I am very pleased that her book has been edited by the quality editors at Thames Hudson as it will remain a point of reference for many generations to come. Sophie Renoir, great granddaughter of Auguste Renoir.

Through a broad selection of familiar central documents and less well known ones the author has focused upon the problems faced by innovators in all realms of thought and action in the middle of the 19th century.
