Language Is Music Susanna Zaraysky, 2009. Language is Music focuses on making learning foreign languages fun, easy, and affordable for anyone with a desire to communicate effectively with people around the world. By applying over 100 simple tips to things you already do, such as listening to music or surfing the Web, you can experience the joy of fluency in any language without having to study abroad or spend money on private tutors. In Language is Music, Susanna Zaraysky masterfully shares her listening methods so that anyone can have fun learning any language. With over 100 tips and 100 free or low-cost Internet resources, you will learn how to use daily activities such as watching TV or listening to music, conversation partners, and attendance at cultural events to become a masterful speaker of any tongue. Learning foreign languages is like learning to sing a song or play music, says self-made linguist Susanna Zaraysky and author of Language is Music. Zaraysky has what you might call an ear for languages, having used music to successfully learn English, Russian, French, Spanish, Italian, Portuguese, and Serbo-Croatian, all with excellent accents. Advance Praise for Language is Music: I love it! I think it will help people who want to learn and those who are curious about additional language learning. Many people want to learn a language but are frightened or disappointed by the courses they have taken. Reading Language is Music will encourage them to try again on their own and with friendly supporters. Dr. Elba Maldonado Colon, Professor, Department of Elementary Education, Bilingual Program, San Jose State University. LET IT JUST ROLL OFF YOUR TONGUE. With lyrical insight and solid experience, Susanna Zaraysky, author of Language is Music, provides easy steps for learning a language. Gone are the boring, disconnected strategies that most of us remember from school. You've never learned a language this quickly and easily. Zaraysky's methods embody fun, connection, rhythm, and above all, music. Suzanne Lettrick, M.Ed., Educator and Founder of The Global Education and Action Network.
